Sacred Heart Catholic Church

202 West Maple, Frazee MN 56544 January 30TH, 2022 Website: http:/frazeesacredheart.org

Here is a thought from last week's homily: We all are to do something. We may not be able to go to Washington DC to participate in a march for life or go to Fargo to protest. All of us can pray.

Since Christmas a focus of attention has been on helping my mother prepare for her move. The big day was January 24. This was the scene at 10 am... My brother Jim was operating the loader that was removing snow from the driveway of the "old" fourplex. As he was moving the last bucket of snow, Mom backed her car out of the garage for the last time and proceeded to Kelleher Manor, her new home. Even before her car was out of the driveway the moving van was backing up for a perfect alignment of the ramp. The two men hoisted the first of the furnishings on to the truck at 10:15 and by 12:15 they had unloaded the last of it in her new home. Amazing! It was as if an orchestral conductor was calling for each instrument in perfect timing.

Mom and I directed the placement of furniture. My brother Bob tended to pictures, lamps, and other fragile items. My brother Mark cleaned the vacated apartment. Members of mom's card club provided lunch and supper on the move day. There are leftovers for a month of meals! As I was leaving the following day, a lady was bringing a plate of cupcakes and begged me to take one for the road. On Wednesday my sister Ann spent the day tweaking the arrangement of all things and serving wine and cheese to celebrate the new chapter.

The mood of this move was one of gratitude and joyful anticipation. What a blessing!

We are the Body of Christ. As members of his body, we are to assist one another, especially in times of need. Sometimes the body is attentive to the needs others and responds with perfect timing. At other times, one of the members is in need and is suffering and alone, and there is no conductor or orchestra.

It is our Christian duty to open our eyes and to respond to the needs of others, not only on moving day, but every day. Thank you for all you do to care for family and friends, for the widow and the orphan.

"Love is patient, love is kind. It is not jealous, it is not pompous…" (1 CORINTHIANS 13:4)

Do you get jealous? Do you focus more on the things that other people have than on the gifts that God has given to you? Are you pompous? Do you acquire more possessions to impress others? At times we are all guilty of these things. Pray for more humility. Humility helps us become less "self-centered" and become more "God-centered" for the sake of others.

Deep cleaning of the church will take place on Thursday Feb. 3rd at 6pm and then again on Saturday Feb. 5th at 10am. If these dates and times don't work for you and your family come when you can. All supplies and a list of what needs to be cleaned will be in the kitchen downstairs. When you have completed something on the list simply cross it off so someone else doesn't spend their time recleaning what has already been done. Many hands make quick work.
