Kyliegh VanDenEykel sends the following greetings:

“Do not conform yourself to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is Good & Pleasing & perfect.” (Romans 12:2) Kyliegh indicates this is her favorite Bible verse right now.)

Dear Sacred Heart family (especially Knights of Coilumbus & Christian Mothers): Thank you again for all of your support and prayers for my NET mission this year! I am in St. Joseph, Michigan, on a parish stationary team, and I absolutely love it! I would not be able to be here if it wasn't for you guys! Not only is the ministry going well, but my relationship with the Lord is the best that it has ever been! I know I can speak for Rachel by saying your prayers are definitely being felt! Thank you sooo much for the constant prayers and love you send our way! Please be assured of my prayers for you as well! Where I am for the year, there are 2 parishes and 4 churches. There is also a Catholic School. With that we are kept very busy, whether it is meeting one-on-one with youth, eating school lunches with them, hosting youth events (continued in the center announcement column)

Here is a thought from last week's homily: We will soon approach the altar of the Lord, the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Let us reach out to receive God's love and then love in return.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church: The Final Purification, or Purgatory

1030 All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven.

1031 The Church gives the name Purgatory to this final purification of the elect, which is entirely different from the punishment of the damned.⁶⁰⁴ The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence and Trent. The tradition of the Church, by reference to certain texts of Scripture, speaks of a cleansing fire:⁶⁰⁵

As for certain lesser faults, we must believe that, before the Final Judgment, there is a purifying fire. He who is truth says that whoever utters blasphemy against the Holy Spirit will be pardoned neither in this age nor in the age to come. From this sentence we understand that certain offenses can be forgiven in this age, but certain others in the age to come.⁶⁰⁶

1032 This teaching is also based on the practice of prayer for the dead, already mentioned in Sacred Scripture: "Therefore [Judas Maccabeus] made atonement for the dead, that they might be delivered from their sin."⁶⁰⁷ From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God.⁶⁰⁸ The Church also commends almsgiving, indulgences, and works of penance undertaken on behalf of the dead:

Let us help and commemorate them. If Job's sons were purified by their father's sacrifice, why would we doubt that our offerings for the dead bring them some consolation? Let us not hesitate to help those who have died and to offer our prayers for them.⁶⁰⁹
