

Sacred Heart Catholic Church

202 West Maple, Frazee MN 56544 March 25, 2018 Website: <http://frazeesacredheart.org>

Here is a thought from last week's homily: In the ways of Divine Providence, the six years of Patrick's captivity were preparation for his future apostolate...God can use your cross to bring glory to His name.

Books, books, books. My life is filled with books. I have been sorting through my books for months. I have canon law, scripture and liturgy now in my office. I organized my small collection of the writings of St. John Paul II in my chapel at home. I even arranged my cookbooks! For someone who doesn't like to read, I have a lot of books.

A friend of mine has, not simply a bunch of books, but a small library. He sees his books as friends and companions. He could no sooner part with a book than any of us could simply discard a life-time friend. I admire him for that. I even wish I were a reader, but I am not.

For me, books are more like prison guards. When I must read one, it is a matter of discipline (or penance or obedience!). Bishop Hoepfner recently sent a book to all priests in the Diocese to be read by the middle of April. It is background for our education days. After a couple of weeks, I am already 8 pages into it. I told myself that I would read it for 10 minutes every morning. Starting....
