Here is a thought from last week's homily: They could not move a 5,000 pound stone from the entrance of the tomb. But could they announce to the disciples and Peter that Jesus is alive?

Have you ever washed the feet of your son? Of course! When he was a baby. When he was a toddler after he tromped through a muddy back yard. When he was a teenager with one leg in a cast. How about as a sign of your commitment to pour your life in service because you love Jesus? I have witnessed a mother washing her son's feet.

Have you ever washed the feet of your daddy? A couple of bachelors lived together in their old age. One of them gradually became incontinent. It got to be so bad that his feet were often wet from urine. Eventually he contracted a bacterial infection between his toes. It was gross! The fix: he needed to wear a diaper; then to cure his infection he needed to soak his feet in warm water with small bit of Dreft in the water—Dreft is a liquid laundry detergent made for babies.

Who do you think came to the home twice a day to wash his feet? His daughter, of course. How does a daughter muster the stomach to wash between the toes of her daddy twice a day? How does a daughter find time to care for her father twice a day? How does a daughter find the strength to remind her daddy to wear his diaper? How do any of us lay down our lives for another?

Sing with me, "Do you know, what I have done for you, you who call me your teacher and your Lord? If I have washed your feet, so you must do as I have done for you."

DREFT: do right every first time...and the second time will be easier.
