Here is a thought from last week's homily: If we take our eyes off Jesus, we will most likely get hurt. Sin is the work of the devil, who seeks to destroy, and divide.

Jesus said to Pilate, "For this I was born and for this I came into the world, to testify to the truth. Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice." Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" (John 18:37)

We seek the truth in our lives. This truth is the person of Jesus Christ. It is all that he has revealed and given to the Church to be preserved and taught. We submit to the truth when we fill our minds and hearts with Sacred Scripture. We submit to the truth when we inform our consciences with the teachings of the Catholic Church.

We also seek the truth when we endeavor to live our lives with integrity—the quality of being honest and having strong moral principles. When doing so, we are a light shining for the world to see.

Sometimes we wonder about the integrity of those who are near us and those whom we respect from afar. Sometimes, especially in the midst of conflict, it takes time for the truth to be revealed. The evil one is clever and seeks to confuse us. Keep praying. Be patient.

Essentia Health, wanting to make sure that local pastors are given a timely notice that one of their parishioners is in the hospital, gives the following advice: Either the patient or the patient's family should ask one of Essentia's chaplains to contact Father David when they are hospitalized. All the patient/family needs to do is ask their nurse for a chaplain visit, and make this request at that time.

Knights of Columbus will have roses available for Mother's Day after Mass this weekend.

Today's second collection is a one-time collection for the Trinity Dome Project. By participating in this project, you become a part of the fabric of Mary's Shrine and help to bring to completion your church: The Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

The year 2017 marks the 100th anniversary of the apparitions of Our Lady to the three shepherd children at Fatima, Portugal, where the Blessed Virgin appeared once each month from May 13 until Oct. 13, 1917. To celebrate this event, Sacred Heart is having a movie night after the Saturday evening Mass on May 13. The title of the movie that will be shown is "The 13th Day," the true story recounting the greatest miracle of the 20th Century. There will be a light lunch before the movie for those attending the movie.
