Here is a thought from last week's homily: If that is true, I would never leave this place.

I was gone for ten days, and some of the plants in the rectory suffered. I forgot to take my morning medication (acid blocker) and I suffered. I didn't call my brother on his birthday, and he noticed. If we live carelessly or without providing for the needs of all people and creatures around us, the Body of Christ suffers needlessly.

What do you do when you want to throw a rant, but it is too late? I get to write about it in the bulletin! Here is what happened... Before a wedding I noticed that the groomsmen were drinking whisky. I approached one of them, nearest to the bottle and asked, "Is that alcohol?" He responded, "Yes. Do you want some?" I said, "No, and you all cannot be drinking before the wedding." I checked back on them and the bottle was no longer on the table, but their clear plastic glasses were still in hand. They were drinking something the color of maple syrup. I approached another and said, "We cannot be drinking before the wedding."

At wedding rehearsals, I ALWAYS inform the wedding party that there can be no drinking from midnight through the wedding ceremony. This time I didn't. So, the rant is directed partially at myself. I didn't do my job, and people didn't know how to act.

Would it have made a difference? For sure. They would have either abstained from alcohol or would have kept the bottle hidden, and they would have been drinking from coffee mugs and not clear plastic cups!

At issue: The fast before Mass. The execution of a legal document, which required the witnesses to be mentally competent. Respect for the bride and groom, who don't need their wedding party passing out half way through the ceremony!

I have witnessed this from another perspective. One of my sisters-in-law is a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints. Prior to the wedding (months prior!), it was communicated to all family members that the events around the wedding would be alcohol-free. Some of my brothers honored this by keeping the alcohol in the trunk of a Grand Marquis and spending more time around the car than at the reception. Seriously? We don't have self-control or enough respect for the newest member of the family to honor a simple and reasonable request? This is sad. This was 25 years ago. Still I remember it clearly. I also remember that the Body of Christ is far better off when we respect one another and the dignity of the events we are attending.

We are fragile. Relationships can be fragile. Take care of yourself and your family. Stupid choices can damage family and friends forever.

Thanks for listening.

The CD of The Month is "A Scriptural Walk Through The Mass", by Edward Sri. For Catholics, the Mass is entirely familiar, but often not well understood. Scripture scholar and best-selling author Dr. Edward Sri takes listeners on a journey through the sacred liturgy that is sure to help Catholics experience the Mass more fully as the most powerful and important prayer of the Church. Dr. Sri examines the historical and biblical roots of the words, prayers, actions, and gestures contained within the Mass in order to arrive at a deeper understanding of their significance. This CD and many others are available by the stained glass window in the back of the church. An envelope is available for your $3 donation to the Christian Mothers who sponsor this project.
