

Sacred Heart Catholic Church

202 West Maple, Frazee MN 56544 July 15, 2018 Website: <http://frazeesacredheart.org>

Here is a thought from last week's homily: If, at any moment in my life, grace seems to be missing, it is not because God has failed to be generous. Rather, it is because I have failed to be open to grace or its messenger.

During every Mass we walk to the altar to receive Holy Communion or a blessing. Is there anything that troubles you as you join in this procession? I notice parents can be preoccupied by their little children. Children seem to have trouble walking in a straight line. Sometimes they walk ahead or lag behind. After they receive a blessing, they can turn the wrong way. Sometimes they shy away from the blessing or reject it all together. Sometimes little children reach for Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament and tear up when they are denied. The procession is to be entered with reverence. But not in some preconceived notion of reverence that omits all participants but pious nuns. Your piety is colored by your vocation. If you have little children, you are necessarily occupied by them, even as you prepare to receive Jesus in Holy Communion. Jesus called children to himself. Surely he calls them to himself in our communion procession. Don't be distracted by children at Mass. Rather cherish the fact that the seeds of faith are watered each week. When you are aware of children at Mass, be aware that Jesus reaches for them. We would be lucky to accompany them into the arms of the Lord.

Sometimes I notice you when you process behind someone who is elderly or frail. You worry that they will miss a step or topple over. Sometimes the hands that reach for the Lord are unsteady and so are the legs that carry them. Jesus reached for children. He also reached for the sick. He wanted to lay his hands on them and heal them.

In the communion procession you may feel unsteady yourself. Walking is difficult. Your hands may not be as steady as they once were. We want you to be comfortable. If you want to walk in procession, come! Take your time. The Lord Jesus wants communion with you and wants you to receive communion. If you are not comfortable coming forward, mention to an usher on your way into the church that you would like Holy Communion brought to you in the pew. We are so pleased to bring Jesus to you.

Our prayer is always more complete when we pray with every generation, from newborn babies to the oldest among us. You may dream of a Mass without the distractions of children and others with needs. Let that dream go. It is better for us to be a body whole than to be a body piously quiet but incomplete.

Youth

CBS---Catholic Bible School is coming Aug. 5th to Aug. 9th from 6pm to 8pm. We are in need adult and youth volunteers to make it successful. Please pray on helping with this ministry. The Giving Tree that is set up in All Saints Hall has additional items that are needed to make CBS successful. These items are for FRESH FRUIT. The fruit can be dropped off August 4th and 5th before or after masses. Please help with CBS by taking a tag off the Giving Tree to donate.

There will be a short meeting on July 14th after the Saturday 5:30 mass for all CBS Volunteers.

The CD of The Month is "Humanae Vitae--50 Years Later--History of Dissent and Defense", by Janet Smith. Janet Smith, Ph.D., a seminary professor and internationally-known author and speaker, provides important context for why Humanae Vitae is considered the most controversial, and one of the most important, encyclicals promulgated by the Church in modern times. She discusses how this document written by Blessed Pope Paul VI served to prophetically warn the world of the dire consequences associated with artificial contraception and faithfully witness to the beauty of God's plan for sex within marriage. There is a bonus talk on the CD by Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila (formerly Bishop of Fargo Diocese) titled "God's Plan for Love". This CD and many others are available by the stained glass window in the back of the church. An envelope is available for your $3 donation to the Christian Mothers who sponsor this project.
