DIVINE MERCY HOLY HOUR

“As a gift to humanity, which sometimes seems bewildered and overwhelmed by the power of evil, selfishness and fear, the Risen Lord offers His love that pardons, reconciles and reopens hearts to love. It is love that converts hearts and gives peace. How much the world needs to understand and accept Divine Mercy!!!” (Rich in Mercy, Bl Pope John Paul II).

Please join others in the Divine Mercy Eucharistic Holy Hour on Sunday, September 24th at 3:00 pm to be held at the Catholic Church of St. Henry in Perham, MN.

Here is a thought from last week’s homily: Admonishing the sinner is a corporal work of mercy. It takes humility to speak the truth of sin and repentance. If humility is lacking, then the sinner simply feels judged by the self-righteous. If humility is lacking, then the person blind to sin digs in his heels, closes his ears and heart and rejects the message and the messenger.

I want to share part of the message we brought to the orphans in Uganda. Here it is in both languages.

YOU have great dignity. No one can ever take this dignity from YOU.
Ekitiinisa Ruhanga ki yaakuhaire, busaho n/omu osoboro kukikwihaho.

God has designed YOU out of love. YOU are made in God’s image and likeness.
Ruhanga nukugonza muno. Oli mu kiskusani kye.

God is Love. There is no reason to be afraid of God. He knows and sees all things. He loves you no matter what!
Ruhanga ni Engonzi, tutamutiina. Amanyire kandi narola byona. Natugonza bull kiro nk’oku turi.

I was asked if my trip to Uganda was life-changing for me. I am still pondering that question. It hasn’t changed my life in the sense that I have changed habits. I still take unreasonable long, hot showers and I use electricity without thought. I think that my heart is changing. I have always loved kids; now I love more of them! Awe is growing in me regarding the amazing gift that a culture is to its own people and to the world.
