

Sacred Heart Catholic Church

202 West Maple, Frazee MN 56544

The 2014 DAA begins today. Our parish DAA goal is $15,948. Let us all prayerfully consider how we might help our parish meet its goal this year and support the ministries and work of the Diocese of Crookston.

If you have not already made your DAA commitment and your prayer requests to Bishop Hoepfner, DAA envelopes and prayer request cards will remain available in the Church vestibule. Please give your support to the Diocese of Crookston with your gift and prayers!

You may also make a gift online at www.crookston.org/DAA or call the Office of Stewardship & Development toll-free at 1-855-397-8252 for assistance. If you make your gift in the form of a pledge, you have the next 11 months to fulfill your pledge.

(from "John XXIII—Mystical Pope," Victor M. Parachin, Spiritual Life, A Journal of Contemporary Spirituality, Fall 2013, p 88-89.)

Vatican II

Because of his age at election—seventy-six—it was assumed he (John XXIII) would merely be a transitional or "caretaker" pope. Though his reign was brief, only five years, it is regarded by historians as the most important pontificate since the Middle Ages. This is due to his decision to call an ecumenical council of the Universal Church, the first since 1870 and only the twenty-first in the Church's history. His desire in calling the council was to bring about a renewal of the Church by having it adapt its organization and teaching to meet the needs of the modern world.

Unfortunately, John would not live to see his Vatican Council vision realized. From the start of the first session, his health began to diminish. Only those closest to him knew he was suffering from stomach cancer. Because of his age, surgery was deemed too risky. As a result, his health continued to decline. He appeared at his window overlooking St. Peter's Square for the last time on May 23, 1963.

Shortly after that he reassured those around him: "My bags are packed and I am ready, very ready to go." Earlier, he spoke of the same readiness in a letter written to his older brother Savero:

My eighty years of life complete tell me, as they tell you, dear Savero, that what is more important is always to keep ourselves well prepared for a sudden departure, because this is what matters most: to make sure of eternal life, trusting in the goodness of the Lord who sees all and makes provision for all.

Pope John XXIII died quietly on June 3, 1963. It was the Vatican press office that issued this final bulletin: "He suffers no more." Outside the papal window, thousands in St. Peter's Square began to grieve along with millions around the world. Many times John XXIII had come before groups saying, "I am your brother." The world believed him.

Please! Please! Please!

When you charge something to the parish, please:

- sign the receipt
- note what the expense is for
- pin the receipt to the bulletin board in the kitchen.

Every bill that gets paid by the parish gets charged to a specific account within the parish budget. Bills frequently come in for charges made to the parish by a parishioner, and Marlys uses valuable office time tracking down which budget account is responsible for the expense. Signed and notated receipts on the kitchen bulletin board eliminate this time expenditure.
