A thought from a homily last week: The eyes that first gazed upon the baby Jesus now gaze upon people everywhere. This mother knew that only one can heal us and save us, and bring us peace and joy—O Mary, show us Jesus.

Thank you for all the kind Christmas wishes, gifts and greetings. I appreciate your thoughtfulness very much.

I would like to share with you some of my favorite sights from the Christmas liturgies.

- A mother brought her squirrely baby into the cry room during Mass. Later they caught my eye. Mother and baby were dancing to "O Little Town of Bethlehem."
- After the distribution of Holy Communion an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion returned the ciborium containing the Body of Christ to the altar. I could tell by the way she held the ciborium and by the way she gazed into it that it was hard to for her to say good-bye to Jesus.
- Children gathered at the Nativity Scene becoming re-acquainted with the saints and animals.
- Baptisms!
- Families praying together.
- Musicians singing and playing with all their skill.
- The Churches beautifully decorated.
- Penitents coming to confession.
- Cookies, candies and egg nog.

Thank you all for a wonderful Christmas. I can't wait for next year!

Father David

Thoughts on Mercy:

"Frequently she (the Church) has condemned them (past errors) with the greatest severity. Nowadays, however, the Spouse of Christ prefers to make use of the medicine of mercy rather than that of severity. She considers that she meets the needs of the present day by demonstrating the validity of her teachings rather than by condemnations.... St. John XXIII
