Here is a thought from last week's homily: What we see with our eyes can reveal to us God's voice.

This week the Diocese of Crookston offered the annual St. John Paul II Leadership Camp for grades 6-8. This year the registration hit its maximum very soon after the opening of registration. Next year the Diocese plans to offer TWO sessions of the camp.

Imagine your summer following the sixth grade. What if you had a week of camp teaching you how to pray, teaching you the wonders of our great faith, teaching you how to share your faith and allowing you to enter in to the love God has had for you since the moment of your conception. Let us be grateful that 110 of our kids in the Diocese of Crookston had this opportunity this year...and next year it will be 220!

Last week I enjoyed a visit from Bridgette Pinsonneault. She is a college graduate in aeronautical engineering and now, for the third year after college, is a full-time missionary for St. Paul's Outreach. Bridgette works full-time to bring Jesus to college students. On Tuesday after communion at the daily Mass, she shared with us that 10% of Catholic college students practice their faith. She works hard to confirm the faith of the 10% and reaches out to the 90%, along with those who have no faith commitment at all. Please pray for Bridgette and for the marvelous work of St. Paul's Outreach. Missionaries like Bridgette need financial support. If you would like to join the effort, go to (spo.org). My tithe has included $50 a month for the last two years to support this amazing missionary. I am excited to have signed up for year three.

Go team!
