Here is a thought from last week's homily: I wonder if when we struggle with personal prayer it is because we are not ready to be honest...about who we are and what we have done.

My friend Anna came to Frazee for a visit on Wednesday. She attended our Mass at Frazee Care Center. We enjoyed a lunch and a couple of hours of conversation. On August 26 Anna will enter a Carmelite monastery in Denmark, WI. When she arrives and the door closes, she will separate herself from the world in a radical way so that she can unite the world to Jesus through a life of prayer. This will be her daily schedule:

- 4:50 Rising
- 5:15 Morning Prayer
- 5:45 Mental Prayer
- 6:15 Midmorning prayer
- 7:00 Mass and Thanksgiving
- 8:30 Breakfast followed by work
- 11:00 Midday Prayer
- 11:30 Dinner
- 12:25 Recreation
- 1:00 Rosary and free time
- 2:00 Midafternoon prayer
- 3:00 Work
- 4:30 Evening prayer
- 5:00 Mental Prayer
- 6:00 Light supper
- 6:45 Recreation
- 7:15 Night Prayer/Free Time
- 9:05 Liturgy of the Hours - Office of Readings
- 10:00 Rest in the Sacred Heart

The monastery will not permit itself to grow to be over 20 members. If this appears to be happening, they will divide and found another monastery. The entire community has given up meat as a perpetual penance. Once the woman enters the monastery, it takes approximately six years for her to become a full member. While she is there, she is not allowed to leave for any reason, except health care. Anna is already sad that she will not be able to attend the funerals for her parents.

The nuns include prayer for priests in their daily prayer. Anna told me that she will add all the priests of the Diocese of Crookston to prayer of this monastery. How fortunate we are!

Parents, would you be willing to offer a daughter for such a life?
