Ash Wednesday and Good Friday are obligatory days of fasting and abstinence for Catholics. In addition, Fridays during Lent are obligatory days of abstinence.

For members of the Latin Catholic Church, the norms on fasting are obligatory from age 18 until age 59. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal. Two smaller meals may also be taken, but not to equal a full meal. The norms concerning abstinence from meat are binding upon members of the Latin Catholic Church from age 14 onwards.

If possible, the fast on Good Friday is continued until the Easter Vigil (on Holy Saturday night) as the "paschal fast" to honor the suffering and death of the Lord Jesus, and to prepare ourselves to share more fully and to celebrate more readily his Resurrection.

Here is a thought from last week's homily, Indeed, the love God has for us is irrevocable; our sins cannot diminish the Father's love and our good works cannot earn it.

Here is a message Bishop Hoepfner sent to the priests on March 3, 2016:

Bells and Incense. The Deans and I also reviewed yesterday what the General Instruction of the Roman Missal says regarding the ringing of bells during the Holy Eucharist and the use of incense at the time of the Consecration. Of course, we know that the diocesan bishop is to be vigilant over the liturgical life of his diocese. The GIRM itself, as does Canon 838.4 relying on Sacrosanctum Concilium 22 of Vatican II, notes: "The Diocesan Bishop, who is regarded as the High Priest of his flock, from whom the life in Christ of his faithful in some sense derives and upon whom it depends, must promote, regulate, and be vigilant over the liturgical life in his diocese." (#387). In the matter of bells and incense at Mass, I am told there has developed some question and even confusion in the life of the faithful here. The GIRM states in #150: "A little before the Consecration, if appropriate, a minister rings a small bell as a signal to the faithful. The minister also rings the small bell at each elevation by the Priest, according to local custom. If incense is being used, when the host and the chalice are shown to the people after the Consecration, a minister incenses them." (Italics added)

So, please note, so that there be no confusion or question in a parish or from one parish to another, as diocesan bishop let me clearly state and set: It is local custom and policy in the Diocese of Crookston that:

---bells not be rung during the Consecration; it is not appropriate in this local church to do so.

---incense is not to be used when the host and chalice are shown to the people after the Consecration.

This has been our custom and it continues to be. I hope this clears up any confusion or question.

We will be praying the Rosary during Lent starting 25 minutes before each of the weekend Masses.

The Knights of Columbus will have an initiation ceremony on Saturday, April 2, 2016, at Sacred Heart, 8:30 am. Any man interested is invited to join. If you have questions, you can talk to Tim Stenger or Bud Hensel.

2016 Scholarship applications are now available in the kiosk in The Hall of Saints and on the Sacred Heart website. The deadline for applications is April 1, 2016.

The liturgical ministry schedule in the vestibule for Palm Sunday through Easter Vigil still has many blanks. During this most important week of the liturgical year, it is vital that all these ministries be filled. If you are on the Ministry Schedule for March 20 in this bulletin, you are already on that schedule. It is important that volunteers sign up for the open spots on the schedule. There is a need for many Altar Servers. We should all feel honored and blessed to be able to participate in these Holy Week Ministries. The Sacred Heart Pastoral Council is looking for nominations for the upcoming elections in April. We have three, three-year terms and one, two-year term to fill. Outgoing members are Dick Riewer, Jeanne Riley and Heather Mitchell. The two-year term is to fill Karen Nelson's open position. The Pastoral Council is an advisory council to MSGR which means that everyone in the parish is qualified to be a member. Please consider.

The Frazee Knights of Columbus are having their last Lenten Fish Dinner fund raiser on Friday, March 18th. The proceeds are going to our Church to assist with the Restoration of a Stained Glass Window.

Parishoners' Prayer Requests
 Parish families have asked us to keep in our prayers their loved ones who are ill. Please pray for:
