Here is a thought from last week's homily, Almighty ever living God, constantly accomplish the Paschal Mystery within us.

We have come to an end to another season of faith formation, for which there is much to be grateful. Let us thank God for parents and for their faithfulness in sharing the faith with their children. Parents are never free from concern for their children, and they pray for them without ceasing. Let us today pray for parents, that they will have patience, wisdom and prudence as they guide their children to adulthood.

Let us thank God for the gift of children! Kids, we love you and we want you to be close to Jesus. Thank you for your participation in our programs. We are sorry for the times we have lost patience and acted without prayerful thought. You are our joy and our future. May God keep you safe and draw you into the hearts of Jesus and Mary.

Let us thank God for the gift of our catechists. Every catechist feels inadequate and unprepared, yet week after week they trust in the Lord. They share what they have been given. Sometimes they share more than what they have, for the Holy Spirit can multiply their good work and make up for what they are lacking.

Let us thank our present and past parish families for the gift of the facilities and resources we use in our catechetical efforts. They have provided well for us. May we be good stewards of all that we have been given.

Remember, no matter what your age, we are all growing in faith. Pray daily. Stay close to the word of God. Celebrate confession and the Holy Eucharist. Jesus loves you!

THESE CHILDREN ARE RECEIVING FIRST EUCHARIST THIS WEEKEND. PLEASE CONGRATULATE THEM AND KEEP THEM IN YOUR PRAYERS:

Koinonia is a community experience in Christian living especially for adults. It is a Catholic retreat program sponsored by the St. Cloud Diocese. It provides a time and place for adult Christians to experience the reality of Christian community, fellowship and sharing...that is to say: "Koinonia." It also provides a depth of faith-sharing support that allows and challenges inner renewal for each participant at his or her own level. If you are interested in a Koinonia weekend, there are brochures available in the vestibule with more complete information about the weekend experience, a schedule of upcoming weekends, and registration information.
