Here is a thought from last week's homily, "God has revealed an innermost secret: God himself is an eternal exchange of love--Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. He has destined us to share in that exchange."

I have been thinking about how we create a culture of vocations. We want an environment in our parish and in our homes that presents religious vocations as a real option for our kids. We are not trying to cram them into a vocation in a way that diminishes their freedom. Rather, we want to give them freedom to choose a life dedicated to God in a unique way.

Here are a few things we can do.

1. Pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life to grow from our parish. Pray before the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament every time you are in church, especially if you are able to come to Exposition on Tuesdays.
2. If you think one of our young adults would thrive in a religious vocation, tell him/her!
3. Parents, talk about a religious vocation with your children. Let them know that you want them to listen to the Holy Spirit and to respond in obedience.
4. Pray at home! Morning, mealtime, and nighttime prayers are a must. Include a simple petition for priests, brothers, deacons, religious brothers and sisters, and holy marriages.
5. Develop relationships with religious! This is a challenge when there are not religious communities near us. Be creative. Find a way.
6. If you have kids at home, go ahead, invite me for a round of UNO, or whatever game your family enjoys.
7. Attend an ordination! Here are some dates to put on the family calendar.
 - a. Mr. Nate Brunn – transitional diaconate, May 20, 2017 (location TBA);
 - b. 7 men to the permanent diaconate on June 10, 2017 at the Cathedral, Crookston;
 - c. Deacon Matt Schmitz – Priesthood, June 24, 2017 at Cathedral in Crookston.

The Christian Mothers are sponsoring a Parish-Wide Bake Sale this weekend, Saturday 5-7pm and Sunday, 8-10am. Proceeds go for the Stained Glass Window Fund.

Please be sure to read today's bulletin insert regarding the Pilgrimage to the Holy Door at the Crookston Cathedral. This pilgrimage carries with it a plenary indulgence. What a great way to share your faith and love of the Lord with Catholics in our neighboring parishes! You can e-mail your registration wish to the address on the insert. You can drop your $20 into the collection basket and it will get to the office.

Relics Tour: Venerate the relics of St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher, the relics of these two saints who exemplified courage and conviction in the face of persecution are coming to the Diocese of Crookston. St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher were prominent 16th century Englishmen who stood against King Henry VIII's attempted supremacy over the Catholic Church, and accepted martyrdom instead of abandoning their faith. This witness is especially compelling to American Catholics today, as we face threats to our religious liberty and rights of conscience. The relics of St. Thomas More and St. John Fisher will be in Bemidji at St. Philip's Church on Monday, June 27 in the afternoon from 2:30 to 3:30.
