We will pray the rosary starting 25 minutes before each weekend Mass during Advent.

On Dec 1, Father Ilango will speak at the Christian Mothers meeting at @ 7:00 pm. He will speak on the Christian Mothers in India. Also at this meeting the Christian Mothers will prepare the Christmas cards for the Frazee Care Center.

Mark your calendars. We will be having a Parish Mission April 15-17. Fr. William Mason, OMI, will be our Mission leader. Some of you may remember Fr. Mason from a mission he did for us a decade or so ago.

The Knights of Columbus will be handing out Merry Christmas buttons after each of this weekend's Masses. They encourage you to wear yours as you are out shopping, reminding others of the true meaning of the season.

My dear friends in Christ,

Who would be the one person you want to be very grateful throughout your life? For me it is my best friend who encouraged me to enter into the seminary when I was 13 years old. Of course I was seriously thinking about my vocation to the priesthood. However, his enthusiastic encouragement to join the seminary got me seriously into a major decision of life and that, too, at a very young age. We all have such unique people that did something extraordinary things in our life that we remember with loving and grateful memories. What they did might have been a simple thing, yet it changed our lives in a very positive way. We are all indebted to such people. As we are celebrating the Thanksgiving Day this week, let us reflect a little more on our gratitude to God and the good people in our lives.

We are living in an age of entitlement. Even if we get all the things needed for a good living, we still complain about what we don't have! Are we aware of the fact that there are millions in our world today who are so happy and content if they have a roof over their head, a good meal before going to bed and a warm bed to sleep in? If that is the case, how can we go on listing the things we lack? If we only count on the things we don't have, we fail to notice the blessings we have already received. Really, everything we receive comes from the giving of someone else. That means every receiving implies the sacrifice of someone else. Whoever receives something from the other needs to be grateful for the generous giving of the person who gave it. Gratefulness alone will build the social fabric of mutual giving and taking. We can build a good community and society where everybody works to fulfill his/her own need exclusively. Thus we have a need to cultivate a culture of thanksgiving.

Of the ten lepers healed by Jesus, only one foreigner came back to thank him. We usually ask for something from the Lord. We pray fervently till we get that favor. Once it is granted, we forget about the source from which our favor came. What happens at the spiritual realm flows into our daily life, too. As much as we are grateful to God for all the blessings and gifts He showers in our life, we are going to be equally grateful to all other persons in our life. Are we really grateful to our parents for all the wonderful things they did in our life? Do we show our gratitude through our kind actions to them when they are in need of our assistance? Parents are just one category of people we need to remember gratefully. There are many more blessings we do not count enough to thank God and others. Let us renew in our hearts the virtue of gratitude that we grow as healthy and joyful Christians praising and glorifying God for every good thing we enjoy in our life.

Happy Thanksgiving!!!
 Your brother in Christ,
 Fr. Xavier Ilango
