Here is a thought from last week's homily: Imagine a little girl, snatched from her family and brought to a foreign land. Even there she has the courage to witness to the power of her God.

It seems that every week someone seeks the Sacrament of the Sick. Jesus is present to us in our sickness. Our suffering makes up for what is lacking in his. (See Colossians 1:24)

If you have an illness that is more serious than the common cold, if you are experiencing failing health, if you have any surgery pending, ask for this Sacrament. I don't need warning or preparation. Do not deprive yourself of a grace that Jesus wants to give you.

Here are a few thoughts on the Sacrament, from the USCCB website.

In the Church's Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick, through the ministry of the priest, it is Jesus who touches the sick to heal them from sin – and sometimes even from physical ailment. His cures were signs of the arrival of the Kingdom of God. The core message of his healing tells us of his plan to conquer sin and death by his dying and rising.

The Rite of Anointing tells us there is no need to wait until a person is at the point of death to receive the Sacrament. A careful judgment about the serious nature of the illness is sufficient.

When the Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick is given, the hoped-for effect is that, if it be God's will, the person be physically healed of illness. But even if there is no physical healing, the primary effect of the Sacrament is a spiritual healing by which the sick person receives the Holy Spirit's gift of peace and courage to deal with the difficulties that accompany serious illness or the frailty of old age.

This month's CD is "Put Not Your Trust in Princes", by Christopher Check. Speaking from his perspective as a historian, Christopher Check reminds us that the crisis of our age is cultural and, in the end, spiritual. He explains that a flourishing society is not achieved through legislation or at the ballot box, but instead radiates from the family out. Using examples from the ages, he connects us with our rich patrimony as Catholics and provides practical advice on what we must do to transform our culture for Christ. This CD and several others are available in the kiosk near the front door for a $3.00 donation to the Christian Mothers.
