Here is a thought from my wedding homily last weekend: There is a spiritual warfare waged in your marriage. The only enemy is the evil one who seeks to divide and destroy. Your only option in this war is to turn to Jesus. Together, daily turn to Jesus.

I have been here for three years and five months and I am still unpacking. It seems that this fact alone means that I am over-stocked. I have too much stuff. I don't need all that I have. I don't even want all the stuff that I have. But I don't know what to do with it!

I have two boxes of photo albums. Do you remember photo albums? Years ago, people used to print pictures and put them into books (albums). The pictures themselves tell a story. I have several albums from a trip to the Holy Land 32 years ago. Each picture is numbered to correspond to the text of an accompanying description—typed by a type writer. You may have seen a type writer in a museum.

There is a particularly nice album—an album created by scrap bookers in a previous parish. This album is beautifully made and chronicles my years of service in that parish.

I have albums from every season of my life up to the digital season. Now my photos exist in a cloud. I look at them as often as I look at the albums in sealed boxes in my basement.

I am no closer to determining what to do with these albums than I was three and a half years ago when I hauled the unopened boxes from the basement of that house to the basement of this house.

Perhaps God will use these pictures as part of the record of my life in the final judgement. I doubt that God knows that I have already destroyed or deleted the unflattering pictures and the pictures that contained memories of what I want to forget. The best news of all: there have never been pictures of me in my worst moral moments. (I presume that the security footage of the 11-year-old me shoplifting a candy bar has been long ago erased.)

Do you think that God's only interest in you centers on the gory of your best pictures? I think God is more interested in receiving us for who we are, warts, sticky fingers and all. It is then that we give God something to redeem.

In the big picture of things, what I do with my albums doesn't matter. What I do with myself matters. I want God to have me; to have all of me. (click)

Tuesdays: 9:30AM-7:00 PM

This Tuesday is the 3rd Tuesday of the month, and we will be having 24-hour adoration. We still need several more committed people to fill the late night and early morning hours so that no one is there alone. If you cannot commit to a scheduled time, please prayerfully consider signing up as a substitute. Check the list in All Saints Hall to see which hours are in most need.

Tickets are here for the Stitchers Winter Wonderland Quilt. Only 150 will be offered at $5 each. Please turn in tickets by Nov 25 for the Dec 2 drawing.

Some of this year's Confirmation students have selected a coat donation as part of their community service requirement. If you have coats with good wear still left in them that you no longer want, consider donating them to this collection. There will be bins in the Hall of Saints to deposit your donations. Please have your donations in by the end of December.

On December 2, the Christian Mothers will have their annual Brunch and Basket Event. Brunch will be served after 8:30 am Mass until 10:30 am. There will be a Free-Will offering for the brunch. The Theme Baskets will be sold at "Silent Auction" with bids starting on Saturday, December 1. Please drop off your donated basket December 1 & 2 at the Hall of Saints. If you are unable to bring baskets on these dates, the baskets may be dropped off during the week of Nov 26. Bidding stops at 10:15 am on Dec. 3. Winners will be notified for pick-up.

Please keep in prayer the 2018 St. Mary's Mission Appeal which will be taken up on November 24/25, the weekend after Thanksgiving. Our gifts to the Appeal are especially meaningful this year after the loss of the parish building. Providing some additional financial security helps Father Jerry carve out time from his fundraising schedule to invest in plans for the new parish building and school. Please take a few minutes to view the NEW St. Mary's Mission Appeal Video at www.crookston.org/smma. You'll be glad you did!

Marlys will be gone Nov. 20-27. Submit announcements for the Nov. 25 bulletin no later than noon on Monday, Nov. 19.

To submit a prayer request for our prayer chain, either text 503.791.1553 or e-mail frazeeprayerchain@gmail.com. Names will be left in the bulletin 4 weeks. If you want the name to stay another 4 weeks, please make another prayer request.
