

Assumption Catholic Church

206 Dakota Street, PO Box 67, Callaway, MN May 26, 2019

Here is a thought from last week's homily: Love is real. You can see it and feel it. This alone explains why Jesus sent his disciples two by two. If you have love for one another, they will know you are my disciples. Love is the message of the gospel; the glory of Jesus is love.

Oh, how our lives are connected! On a good day we see this, but even then, only at the surface. We see the obvious things, the things that are undeniable. For example...

I was brought to the Church for baptism on June 16, 1963, when I was one week old. At the church that day would have been a 16-year boy, a hard-working boy from a farm family. Skip ahead 56 years. During the week of his 50th wedding anniversary, his grandson gets married, and I am the officiant. What?

Imagine your first day in heaven. A saint comes up to you and says, "Hey! Glad you made it. I remember you. We passed each other in isle 5 in the southside Fargo hardware store in June of 1973. I know you prayed for me that evening. I was on crutches. Thank you. It helped more than you knew."

God is at work building a kingdom. This will be a kingdom of love and mercy, a kingdom of justice and peace. Everything we do contributes to the kingdom, whether good or bad. Every person we meet is an opportunity share the light of faith, even if it is just a quiet prayer.

Don't neglect anyone, including the people who are closest to you. That baby at Mass could be the priest who officiates at your granddaughter's wedding. That stranger on the street may be a soul in need of prayer.

Question of the Week: What do I find inspirational in welcoming all people to our parish and community, and what do I find uncomfortable? How can the Holy Spirit affect my reaction?

PRAYER REQUESTS: A PRAYER TO PRAY FOR THE PEOPLE BELOW:

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illnesses. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/ treatments. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care/treatment and their soul to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy. Amen

"...do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid."
John 14:27

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you.
