Here is a thought from last week's homily, When Jesus shows us his hands and his side, it is an invitation to show him our wounds.

The first person I baptized was my nephew Jake. His wife organized a surprise party for him last Saturday, for his 30th birthday. For the last eleven years he has worked in the oil fields in Western North Dakota. His schedule was demanding—two weeks on and one week off. With two little boys at home, it was time for the next chapter in his employment. He has a new job closer to home.

Closer to home. I have an uncle who lived in Florida for 40+ years. When he turned 90 he decided he wanted to be closer to home. He and his wife moved from their home in Florida into a small apartment in a small town in Western North Dakota, about 20 miles from the farm on which he was born.

An older brother lived in Houston, TX. When he retired, he wanted to live in Minnesota, close to his home. His wife wanted to live in Denver, which was her home. Since they could not agree they decided to split the difference and settled in Rapid City, SD.

The place of our birth, the house of our childhood, the cemetery that contains the remains of our parents; for many these contribute to the definition of home. When I miss the walks around town and the merchants of my childhood, I close my eyes and pray. When I pray, I am closer to home. When we gather together to praise and thank God, we are closer to home. When I imagine Jesus opening the gates of heaven, I feel the draw of home.

It's time once again for the Flowers of Faith initiative, allowing us to grace our altars with fresh flowers! There will be a variety of potted flower plants available for the taking following the Masses on May 18 and 19. We ask that you raise these flowers and then bring the blossoms when you are able. They can be dropped off on either Friday or Saturday mornings. Let's make our altars beautiful again this summer!

St. Thomas Aquinas Book Club will begin on Tuesday, May 7, at 6:30 pm in All Saints Hall. We will begin with Edward Sri's Who am I to Judge? Through the summer and fall, we will also read and discuss Compassionate Blood by St. Catherine of Siena and Praying for Our Adult Sons and Daughters by John and Therese Boucher. The books are available in the bookcase in All Saints Hall. Everyone is invited to enjoy wonderful reading for your summer. Come when you can and grow in your faith. "My fondness for good books was my Salvation."—St. Teresa of Avilla
