206 Dakota Street, PO Box 67, Callaway, MN June 30, 2019

A thought from last week's homily comes from JRR Tolkien:

Out of the darkness of my life, so much frustrated, I put before you the one great thing to love on earth: the Blessed Sacrament. ....There you will find romance, glory, honor, fidelity, and the true way of all your loves on earth.

My neighbor has a garage that is cleaner than my kitchen. Every once in a while the door is open, and I can see how amazing it is. Not that I'm looking...

How different it would be if there were six children in the house under the age of five. Yes, that's how it was with my first six siblings. There would be less time for cleaning, planning and arranging. There would be less money for paint and shelves and perfectly-sized storage containers.

It is often a challenge to be content with the season of our vocation. Rejoice if your patio door is constantly smudged by the fingerprints of children or grandchildren. Rejoice if your home is perfectly clean, and you still have time for personal prayer. Do not let the deceiver confuse you in your thoughts. There is no reason for jealousy and every reason to praise God for this season.

Question of the Week: What commitment have I made that was the most transformative? How can my commitment to my faith be more complete?

PRAYER REQUESTS: A PRAYER TO PRAY FOR THE PEOPLE BELOW:

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illnesses. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/ treatments. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care/treatment and their soul to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy. Amen

"For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love."
 (Galatians 5:13)

We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to "live the good life." But Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free so that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God's work here on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.
