Here is a thought from last week's homily, "Where is Jesus?"

I would like you to meet someone.

Isidore Bakanja worked as an assistant mason for white colonists in what was then the Belgian Congo and later known as Zaire. Convert, baptized 6 May 1906 at age 18 after receiving instruction from Trappists missionaries. Rosary in hand, he used any chance to share his faith; though untrained, many thought of him as a catechist. He left his native village because there were no fellow Christians.

He further worked as a domestic on a Belgian rubber plantation. Many of the Belgian agents were atheists who hated missionaries due to their fight for native rights and justice; the agents used the term "mon pere" for anyone associated with religion. Isidore encountered their hatred when he asked to leave to go home. The agents refused, and he was ordered to stop teaching fellow workers how to pray: "You'll have the whole village praying and no one will work!" He was told to discard his Carmelite scapular, and when he didn't, he was flogged twice. The second time the agent tore the scapular from Isidore's neck, had him pinned to the ground, and then beaten with over 100 blows with a whip of elephant hide with nails on the end. He was then chained to a single spot 24 hours a day.

When an inspector came to the plantation, Isidore was sent to another village. He managed to hide in the forest, then dragged himself to the inspector. "I saw a man," wrote the horrified inspector, "come from the forest with his back torn apart by deep, festering, malodorous wounds, covered with filth, assaulted by flies. He leaned on two sticks in order to get near me - he wasn't walking; he was dragging himself". The agent tried to kill "that animal of mon pere", but the inspector prevented him. He took Isidore home to heal, but Isidore knew better. "If you see my mother, or if you go to the judge, or if you meet a priest, tell them that I am dying because I am a Christian."

Two missionaries who spent several days with him reported that he devoutly received the last sacraments. The missionaries urged Isidore to forgive the agent; he assured them that he already had. "I shall pray for him. When I am in heaven, I shall pray for him very much." After six months of prayer and suffering, he died, rosary in hand and scapular around his neck. Source: www.ocarm.org

DAA Summer Appeal:

Typically, at this time of year, we, as a diocesan family have nearly made our DAA goal. Some parishes meet their goal early and some later in the year, but in every year (99% of goal in 2018) we have provided the necessary resources to sustain diocesan ministries. Ordinarily the Office of Stewardship and Development would look to the Summer Appeal to put us over the top! In this extraordinary year, we are asking for your help to get to 90% of our $900,000 goal. We need your sacrificial gifts to continue ministries that touch all of our lives—the Office of Worship, the Office of Formation of Youth and Adults, Vocations, the Tribunal and Safe Environment Offices, the Office of the Bishop and critically, the Office of Communications have been so important during these past months. Please pick up a Summer Appeal envelope today and prayerfully consider making a gift, even if your parish has made or is near its own goal. The most modest gift shared today is more important than ever. The Summer Appeal envelopes (with the sun logo) will be collected on August 22nd and 23rd. You may make an online gift at www.crookston.org/daa. Thank you.

"For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable." (Romans 11:29)

God has a special mission in mind for each of us. He has given us the gifts we need to accomplish that mission. We are called to be good stewards by using those gifts to do the work that He has planned for each of us. If we deny our gifts or fail to use them as God calls us to use them, then some part of His work will be left undone.

Morning Prayer Mon. Wed. Thurs. and Fri. @ 8:30 am before Mass and Tues. @ 9:00am before Adoration. The Liturgy of the hours and Divine Mercy Chaplet are prayed at this time

Safe Environment 2020/21

It is time to renew Safe Environment Certifications. If you work/volunteer in any capacity for Sacred Heart Parish with either youth or vulnerable adults, this certification is required by the Diocese every year. Go to: <http://www.crookston.org/secertification> to complete your certification online. If you do not do it online, get a hard copy of the information in the kiosk in the vestibule. Please everybody get this done by August 31. There is a fair amount of bookkeeping in keeping track of who needs to/has completed the Safe Environment requirement; this bookkeeping is much easier if everyone gets this done by August 31.

Eucharistic Adoration is every Tuesday from 9:30-6:45 (Mass at 7) and on the third Tuesday of each month there is a 24-hour adoration to give the working people a chance to come. Please consider designating one hour a week or one hour a month to praise and thank Jesus, present in the Blessed Sacrament, for all the graces He has bestowed on you and your family.

Christian Mothers Annual Raffle. This year the Christian Mothers will be selling only 500 tickets for $5 a ticket. Drawing will be September 6th. There are 3 prizes $100 cash, Autumn in Town Square Quilt 90x115, and a Quilted Chest. The quilted chest and the quilt will be on display in All Saints Hall when they are completed. Tickets will be available before and after Masses starting July 11th or in the office.
