Here is a thought from last week's homily: Worst day ever...the bridegroom comes and there is no oil in my lamp.

This last week's weather was the fall I had hoped for. I enjoyed several walks and the sounds and smells of fall. I like to leave my phone in the car or even at home when I am out for a walk. Being unplugged, even for a half hour, is a feeling of freedom for me.

For one of my walks I enjoyed a path on private property—yes, I had permission. I didn't know the route of the path. After about 45 minutes of walking I began to wonder, "Should I turn around? Can I retrace my steps? Why didn't I bring my phone?" My wonder turned to a momentary panic. I did turn around and I must have been walking quickly—I was out of the woods in about ten minutes.

How quickly a joyful walk can turn to panic, and then back to joy again. Life can be like this. A routine visit to the doctor can turn to panic when the doctor wonders about a lump...and joy returns when suspicions are defeated by test results. Any moment of peace and joy can be turned upside down with a phone call or a text.

It is good to root ourselves in authentic joy every day—the joy that comes from knowing that Jesus is the Lord of Life and that his promises are true. Faith can mitigate the highs and lows of life, not at the level of emotions, but by offering a deep peace that cannot be overcome by any news, good or bad.

As Catholics, we support many needs around the country and around the world. The St. Mary's Mission Appeal supports the education and wellbeing of 115 Anishinaabe children in our own diocese. It is some of the most important stewardship we can participate in. Please be as generous as you have been in the past. You can donate online at www.crookston.org/smma and enjoy a video presentation.

 Sacred Heart has 13 Confirmation Candidate that need Prayer Angels. What is a Prayer Angel? Someone who is assigned a candidate to pray for on their journey to Confirmation. They send them notes, prayer cards, bible verses, candy and shares their faith with them all the while being anonymous. The idea is to have a stranger/nonfamily member pray for them. Those who have been prayer angels have found it extremely rewarding. Some have revealed themselves to the candidate at Confirmation and when the prayer angel needed prayers because of an illness that Confirmation Candidate said to them it was their turn to pray for them. We all read, listen to things about our faith that make us want to share it with the youth. This program makes it easy to do. Please pray about this ministry and let Christine Dornbusch in the office know if you would like to be a Prayer Angel.
