With Father David being away this week here is a reflection from January 2018.

Here is a thought from last week's homily: "What are you looking for? It is good to let his question ring in our ears. You have followed Jesus from your first encounter with him until now. Imagine him turning to you, gazing into your eyes, and asking, "What are you looking for?"

You may recall that my friend Anna Kliner entered the Monastery of the Holy Name of Jesus in Denmark, Wisconsin. She was given the name St. Mary Vianney. Anna's father died last week on January 12 and was buried on January 17. When Anna entered the monastery, it was understood that she would be separated from the world. Although this separation can be painful, it is not a punishment. It is a special discipline to help the sisters to focus on Jesus with undivided hearts. So, she did not attend to her father in his dying days. She was not at his side when he entered into eternal life.

Most days I sit in my chapel for about an hour in the morning. Even though it is first thing in the morning, I seldom settle into a conversation with Jesus with full attention. I am distracted by my memories of yesterday and last week and by my plans for the day that is immanently unfolding. I focus on all that troubles my heart, but without giving my heart to Jesus. My heart is divided. I will spend my whole life trying to give it undivided to Jesus. It is my vocation to be in the world. It is also my vocation to pray. Sometimes these two necessities compete for my heart.

It is Sr. Mary Vinney's vocation to be apart from the world in order to pray for it. She gives herself whole-heartedly to Jesus every moment of every day. We need her to be faithful because we need her prayers.

"Follow me and I will make you fishers of men." - Mark 1:17

Jesus' call to "Follow me" is a call to all Christians! The call is in the here and now, in our present circumstances, not when we think we are "ready" or have everything in order. Good stewardship of our God-given gifts means that things aren't always going to go according to our schedule and that God has a much better plan in store for each of us.

St Francis of Assisi would like to Thank everyone for the donations that made it possible for 20- $50.00 certificated to be purchased this Christmas for those in need in our community. The Knights of Columbus also donated 5 more $50.00 certificates. God Bless You!!!

Bring in your old palm branches to the church as they will be used for Ash Wednesday on February 17th. A basket will be provided in All Saints Hall.

January is prolife month. Excellent time to buy Abby Johnson's CD, "Why I Left Planned Parenthood" (in the back of church by stained glass window) or watch her conversion story on You Tube/ Journey Home.

Christian Mothers February Meeting will be Monday February 1st. This is a date change. We will pray the Rosary at 5pm, with potluck and meeting at 5:30. There will be installation of officers also.
