Snippets on the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

We cannot approach the Blessed Trinity as an intellectual concept and find in it any lasting meaning. We can approach the persons of the Trinity and fall in love...three times over. Do not think about God. Experience God in your daily life.

To celebrate the Eucharist is to celebrate the Crucifixion of Jesus for our sins. To receive the Eucharist is to become more like Jesus.

Our gospel passage today comes from Mark's telling of the Passion of Jesus which we heard on Palm Sunday earlier this year. The passage as read today ends with Jesus' words at the Last Supper instituting the Eucharist as he proclaims the bread and wine to be his Body and Blood. Prior to that we hear of the disciples making preparation for the Passover.

How do we prepare ourselves to celebrate the Eucharist? One thing we do is fast for an hour before receiving Communion. This is to be a witness of us saying what we are about to receive is important.

We are also called to think about our worthiness to receive the Eucharist. Have we committed any mortal sins that need to be confessed in the Sacrament of Reconciliation?

Do we live as the Lord tells us? Do we desire to become what we receive, the Body of Christ?

What does it mean to be a member of the Body of Christ?

For us individually, it begins with Baptism. It continues with our reception of the Eucharist (and the other sacraments). It calls us to live as Christ taught us.

Being a member of the Body of Christ is not just a matter for us as individuals. Being part of the Body of Christ is to be part of the community of believers in our Church. The Church is the Body of Christ.

This means coming together, each with our different gifts, working together as one body for the building up of God's Kingdom (think of the words we say in the Lord's Prayer, thy kingdom come).

How are we called to be the Body of Christ to the world today?

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. PRAYER REQUESTS:

A PRAYER TO PRAY FOR THE PEOPLE BELOW: Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illnesses. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/ treatments. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care/treatment and their soul to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy. Amen

"The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, and if children then heirs, heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ..."
ROMANS 8:16-17

If we are heirs to the kingdom of God, shouldn't we work to build up His kingdom? Shouldn't we be good stewards of our inheritance, using our time in prayer, our talent in charitable works and our treasure to care for the Church that God has left to us? Our Church is a treasured heirloom from God. Do we treat it that way?
