Here is a thought from last week's homily: We can see Jesus, the Bread of Life, and still live in the world as if Holy Communion is a meaningless, dry wafer.

John Vianney was not a promising seminarian. He appeared to be of below average intelligence. He did not have achievements, nor did he offer much promise. Most of the time a candidate like him would have been weeded out, his application rejected. Most of the time a candidate like him would have been sent home to work on the farm, side by side with his peasant father.

By a miracle, someone saw something in John. It was his devotion. He had a holiness about him that smarter men often lacked. He was chosen for priesthood for this virtue alone.

St. Joh Vianney did not put on airs after his ordination, pretending to be someone he was not. Rather than a peasant farmer, he became a peasant priest. He did was he was able to do: he heard confessions for eight hours a day. He became a noted preacher, not by the theological brilliance but because he was able to teach the faith in a way it could be understood by all. Tens of thousands of people came to visit the obscure parish priest and turned Ars (France) into a place of pilgrimage.

If you struggle in faith or if you are confused, maybe you are making things too complicated. St. John taught that we need to do two things, pray and love. That is not complicated. If we do this, most of our troubles will melt away like snow in the sun.

Morning Prayer Mon. Tues. Wed. Thurs. and Fri. @ 8:30am before Mass or Communion Service. The Liturgy of the hours and Divine Mercy Chaplet are prayed at this time. Books are available.

"Get up and eat or the journey will be too much for you!"
1 KINGS 19:7

God knows that committing to a stewardship lifestyle is difficult. However, we were not designed to do it on our own, we need His help. Fortunately, God gave us the greatest gift of all, His son, Jesus. Through the gift of the Eucharist, we join our sacrifice with the sacrifice of the Holy Mass and receive the strength and courage to be His joyful disciples.

Liturgical Ministers: Please turn into the office any weekends that you are NOT able to serve at Mass. The liturgical Minister schedule for September 12th to December 19th will be done on August 24th. Please turn in your requests before August 22nd. If you signed up for a ministry at any time in the past just know that you will be scheduled. We need Greeters, Altar Servers, Eucharist Ministers, Lectors, Sacristans and Ushers. There are 12 to 16 people needed at each Mass. If you have been praying on serving in any of these ministries now is the time to let the office know how you would like to help serve at Mass.

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement.
