We have a new bishop!

A native of Denver, Bishop Andrew Cozzens is the youngest of three children. He graduated from Benedictine College in Atchison, Kansas, where he experienced a deepening of the faith through the Catholic Charismatic Renewal. During a period of discernment after college, Bishop Cozzens served as a travelling missionary to young people around the country with Twin Cities-based NET Ministries. He then joined the Companions of Christ in Saint Paul and worked for Saint Paul's Outreach leading college Bible study groups.

After his year of discernment, he was accepted into the Saint Paul Seminary. Four years later, in 1997, he was ordained to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. He served as parochial vicar at the Cathedral of Saint Paul and then Faribault Catholic Community (now Divine Mercy) before being sent to Rome for doctoral studies. Upon his return to Minnesota, Bishop Cozzens began service as an instructor at the Saint Paul Seminary.

On October 18, 2021, Pope Francis appointed him as the eighth bishop of Crookston.

Those without tickets will be able to go online and watch vespers on Sunday, Dec. 5 at 6:30 p.m. and the Installation Mass on Monday, Dec. 6 at 1 p.m. The livestream will be carried at crookston.org/newbishop, facebook.com/DioCrookston and through a live broadcast on Real Presence Radio.

An opportunity is open to everyone to welcome Bishop Cozzens to the diocese. All are invited to Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception on Wednesday, Dec. 8 for a Mass of Thanksgiving on the Patronal Feast of the Diocese of Crookston (Feast of the Immaculate Conception) beginning at 7 p.m.
