Here is a thought from last week's homily, If A = B, and B = C, then A = C. The Christian life: it's all in the math. Jesus loves Peter and Jesus loves Matthew. Therefore, Peter loves Matthew.

On Monday I was preparing the lawn for the first mowing, and I found six shingles. They were laying near a tree line within a few feet of each other. I looked at the roof. It wasn't obvious from where they had come. I got out the ladder and compared them to the roof shingles—they were a match. It wasn't until I climbed up on the roof that I could see their home—the ridge cap was missing six shingles. I had to get close to see the damage.

Most of the time this is true for family life and friendships and every sort of community. We can look at it from a distance and see nothing wrong. In fact, that is often what we prefer to do. We glance at someone and judge that they are fine. With a clean conscience, we are relieved that they are not in need, and, more importantly, that they need nothing from us. It remains true that it is only up close that we see the damage caused by the winds of sin.

We all know the difference between a perfunctory, "How are you?" and a heartfelt expression of concern. This is when we sit down with a cup of coffee, offering our full attention, asking, "How are you?" Then we patiently wait for the heart of another to be revealed.

With the help of twelve nails, I replaced the missing shingles. We cannot fix each other so easily. Most of the time it is healing to know that someone cares enough to listen. That, in itself, can be healing.

"...Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (JOHN 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you. Make God your first choice and not your last resort.

Christian Mother's will have a parish wide bake sale the weekend of May 28th and 29th. Before and after the Masses. Grab some delicious baked goods for your Memorial weekend company. Proceeds go towards the Sacred Heart youth and their Religious Education.

Memorial Day Mass
 at the Cemetery @ 12 noon. If the weather does not allow us to have Mass outside, it will be at the Church.

4th Degree Knights of Columbus Flag Program. Please check your American Flags to make sure they are free of tears or rips for Memorial Day and for the rest of the year. If you need an American Flag or to properly dispose of an American Flag, please contact Jim Clarey at 218-850-2357.

Quilts needed for the new Diocese of Crookston Retreat Center as the Diocese prepares to open the new diocesan retreat center, when we considered the need to purchase bedding, the idea was suggested that we cover each bed in its own unique quilt made by people from across the Diocese. Some parishes have quilting groups while most have individuals who make quilts for a hobby. If you or your group are willing to make a quilt for the Diocesan retreat center, please contact Dcn. Mark Krejci (mkrejci@crookston.org) who will send you information about the size needed for the beds. It would be wonderful if every parish would submit a quilt as a support to people who are on retreat.

Eucharistic Ministers:
 We NEED at a minimum 3 Eucharistic Minister for both weekend Masses. The schedule is out until the end of August. Christine will do her best to add 2 extra's to each Mass so we can offer the Precious Blood and Body at Holy Communion. PLEASE step up and come forward at Mass if you know we are short. PLEASE don't assume someone else will step up. We are in desperate need for our Saturday night Mass. If the Holy Spirit is nudging you to serve in this ministry let Christine Dornbusch know and we will get you trained. Thank you for serving in your parish.

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at 218-281-7895 (24-hour confidential #).
