Fr. David's Homilies—frazeesacredheart.org.Homilies

May 22, 2022

Here is a thought from last week's homily, If A = B, and B = C, then A = C. The Christian life: it's all in the math. Jesus loves Peter and Jesus loves Matthew. Therefore, Peter loves Matthew.

On Monday I was preparing the lawn for the first mowing, and I found six shingles. They were laying near a tree line within a few feet of each other. I looked at the roof. It wasn't obvious from where they had come. I got out the ladder and compared them to the roof shingles—they were a match. It wasn't until I climbed up on the roof that I could see their home—the ridge cap was missing six shingles. I had to get close to see the damage.

Most of the time this is true for family life and friendships and every sort of community. We can look at it from a distance and see nothing wrong. In fact, that is often what we prefer to do. We glance at someone and judge that they are fine. With a clean conscience, we are relieved that they are not in need, and, more importantly, that they need nothing from us. It remains true that it is only up close that we see the damage caused by the winds of sin.

We all know the difference between a perfunctory, "How are you?" and a heartfelt expression of concern. This is when we sit down with a cup of coffee, offering our full attention, asking, "How are you?" Then we patiently wait for the heart of another to be revealed.

With the help of twelve nails I replaced the missing shingles. We cannot fix each other so easily. Most of the time it is healing to know that someone cares enough to listen. That, in itself, can be healing.

Question of the Week: How can I extend the Lord's peace in my community, in my parish, in my family?

If you or someone you know has been the victim of sexual misconduct on the part of a priest, deacon, or individual representing the Diocese of Crookston, its parishes, or its schools, your first call should be to law enforcement. In addition, the diocesan Victim Assistance Coordinator is available at 218-281-7895 (24-hour confidential number).

PRAYER REQUESTS:

A PRAYER TO PRAY FOR THE PEOPLE BELOW: Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illnesses.

Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatments. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment.

Enable their bodies to respond well to care/treatment and their soul to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy. Amen

"...Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (JOHN 14:27)

Our limited human understanding cannot begin to understand the immense power of God. Instead of trusting in God, we often think we can control every outcome. Do you want to make God laugh? Tell Him your plans. The next time worry, anxiety or fear creeps in, thank God for all He has given you and trust that He has a better plan for you. Make God your first choice and not your last resort.
