It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear His response.

Morning Prayer Mon. Tues. Wed. and Thurs. @ 8:30am before Mass or Communion Service. The Liturgy of the hours and Divine Mercy Chaplet are prayed at this time. Books are available.

I want to offer as my column for the next two weeks the reflection Bishop Cozzens has written regarding the adjustments to posture at Mass. I hope that you will find it helpful.

This liturgical practice has been part of the diocese for almost 20 years and at one time was in place in several dioceses around the country. The practice emphasized a couple of important truths.

First, that standing is an ancient position of respect and reverence, and especially symbolic of the resurrection when we will rise from our graves to greet the Risen Lord. In fact, one of the early ecumenical councils (where all the bishops of the world gathered) in Nicaea in 318 did not allow Christians to kneel while praying during the liturgy in the season of Easter. Kneeling was considered a penitential act more than a reverential act.

We always stand for the Gospel as a sign of reverence for the words of the Lord, and it is still true (with a nod to the council of Nicaea) that when praying the Litany of Saints during the liturgy in the Easter Season we stand, while, if we pray the same Litany during the rest of the year we kneel.

The second truth the diocesan practice emphasized was unity. Since the communion procession is an act, we are all doing together, maintaining the same posture together throughout emphasizes our unity. We are one body in Christ, and this is emphasized when we sit, stand, and kneel together.

Even though these are valid reasons for the diocesan practice, as everyone is aware most other dioceses follow the General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM) in the matter of posture during the liturgy, which prescribes a different practice. The General Instruction says, "the faithful kneel after the Agnus Dei (Lamb of God) unless the Diocesan Bishop determines otherwise" (#43) and it also says, "if appropriate, they may sit or kneel during the period of sacred silence after Communion" (#43).

Since all the other dioceses around us (and almost all in the United States) follow this practice, many mentioned that this becomes somewhat of a sign of disunity or confusion, as often people from other dioceses come to Mass in our churches and they are confused why everyone else doesn't kneel. The same confusion happens when our people go to Church in other dioceses.
