Pope Pius X—Guiseppe Melchiorre Sarto was born on June 2, 1835 and in 1903 became the 257th Roman Catholic Pope, serving as Pius X until his death on August 20th 1914. He rejected modernist interpretations of Catholic Doctrine, was devoted to Mary, and adopted the first Code of Canon Law, which collected and published for the first time, all the laws of the Church.

On February 2, 1904, Pius issued his Ad diem Illum Laetissimum encyclical in commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the Immaculate Conception Dogma. The encyclical maintained that Christ was the Word made Flesh and the Savior of all mankind...The Blessed Virgin did not conceive the eternal son of God merely in order that Christ might be made man, although Pius wrote that God did obtain his human nature from Mary. “By means of the human nature Christ assumed from Mary, he became the Redeemer of men. Mary, carrying the Savior within her, also carried all those whose life was contained in the life of the Savior. Therefore, all the faithful united to Christ, are members of His body, of His flesh, and of His bones from the womb of Mary like a body united to its head...Through a spiritual and mystical fashion, they are all children of Mary, and she is their Mother, spiritually indeed, but truly Mother of the members of Christ. The Marian encyclical pontifical motto, “Omnia restaurare in Christo” to restore everything in Christ, promoted the Ad diem illum devotions, stating that “no honouring is more pleasing to Mary, none She likes better, than the one in which we truly recognize and love Jesus ...let people believe and confess that the Virgin Mary has been from the first moment of her conception preserved from all stain; ...and that they should admit both original sin and the rehabilitation of the human race by Jesus Christ, The Gospel, and the Church and the law of suffering.”

Certification includes a criminal background check, training related to recognizing and reporting child abuse, and agreement to abide by the Diocesan Safe Environment Policy and Code of Conduct. Please go online to www.crookston.org/offices/safeenvironment/certification to complete the certification. This is a new program the Diocese is using, so please schedule ample time (approximately 1 hour) to complete it by September 1, 2022. See Marlys with any questions.

Announcements

There are still open Sundays to serve fellowship. The sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board. If everyone serves one Sunday, our year will be complete.

PRAYER REQUESTS:

A PRAYER TO PRAY FOR THE PEOPLE BELOW: Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illnesses. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatments. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care/treatment and their soul to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy. Amen

Jim Matter, Peter Pearson, Connie Collman Bergren, Nic Beck and Ken and Rita Pearson.

Question of the Week: Can I feel the fire within that leads me to speak out and speak up despite the consequences?

“For where your treasure is, there also will your heart be.” Luke 12:34

Jesus encourages us to build up our treasure in heaven. The world encourages us to build up our treasure in real estate, investments, and material goods. How much time are you investing in building up a worldly treasure? How much time are you investing in building up a heavenly treasure? To invest more in the things of heaven, you must let go of some of the things of this world.
