This past Wednesday our nation celebrated Flag Day. It is one of my favorite national holidays. On that day we honor the "Stars and Stripes." In schools, we used to pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, and indivisible, with liberty and justice for all. Allegiance is an interesting word. It doesn't just mean unwavering obedience or servitude. Allegiance comes from the word "liege," which means free. Consequently, when we pledge allegiance, we do it freely or not at all. If it is coercive, it is not allegiance, it is slavery. There is nothing incompatible with Christianity and pledging allegiance to the Flag. We pledge to the Flag, because it is the representative head of State, the embodiment of this great nation. Other lands have a monarch, a king or queen, as their head of state, and they pledge loyalty to that monarch, but we Americans pledge to the Flag and to the Republic. We do not pledge to the President of the United States; he is not the embodiment of the nation. He conducts business on our behalf, like a lawyer conducts business on behalf of a client, but he is not the manifestation of our national identity, as is the "Star Spangled Banner." As Christians, it is our duty to pledge allegiance to our homeland. This is what the Church calls Civil Allegiance:

As nature and religion prescribe to children dutiful conduct towards the parents who brought them into the world, so nature and religion impose on citizens certain obligations towards their country and its rulers. These obligations may be reduced to those of patriotism and obedience. Patriotism requires that the citizen should have a reasonable esteem and love for his country. He should take an interest in his country's history, he should know how to value her institutions, and he should be prepared to sacrifice himself for her welfare. In his country's need it is not only a noble thing, but it is a sacred duty to lay down one's life for the safety of the commonwealth. Love for his country will lead the citizen to show honor and respect to its rulers. They represent the State and are entrusted by God with power to rule it for the common good. The citizen's chief duty is to obey the just laws of his country.

When we gaze upon "Old Glory," we should remember the blessings we have received in this land and find within ourselves a growing determination to work and sacrifice that these same blessings would be preserved for our children and children's children.

"As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.'" Matthew 10:7
 Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to "repent." Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second – invite the Lord into your heart.

 The Holy Rosary Quilt Group invites you to join us for a 3-day Quilter's Retreat at the Crookston Diocese Pastoral Center from Thursday, October 19 to Sunday, October 22, 2023. Contact Sandy at sfgravelle@hotmail.com or 701-540-2692 for reservation information.

The old saying "Many hands make quick work" really showed on the day of Corpus Christi. From the preplanning of events to the clean-up. Thank you to those who helped make this day special for our parish. It really takes a village and what a village Sacred Heart has!!!!
