

THIS WEEK ON FORMED

Week of July 30, 2023

Ignatius of Loyola

This film brings to life the story of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Jesuits. Often called "The Saint of Second Chances," St. Ignatius was transformed from a self-obsessed sinner to a loyal and passionate soldier-saint.

Stations of the Cross by Saint Alphonsus Liguori

The Augustine Institute presents a beautiful meditation on the Stations of the Cross by Saint Alphonsus Liguori, narrated by Dr. Christopher Blum. This prayerful reflection is accompanied by the Schola Cantorum, chanting the traditional Catholic hymn Stabat Mater to aid your prayer.

Saint John Vianney | Catholic Saints

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they discuss St. John Vianney, the Cure d'Ars and patron saint of parish priests.

Our parish has a FORMED subscription. Visit signup.formed.org and select our parish name.

Consider today's responsorial psalm. The refrain is, "Lord, I love your commands." Do you love what the Lord commands? He commands some awfully difficult things. Do you love them, or are you angry about having demands made of you that you know are right and with which you must comply for salvation's sake? Too many of us are bitter about certain teachings of the Church. We either don't comply altogether, or we comply, but are mad about it...or we can comply and be joyful about it, because we know that we are safe and right in following all that the Lord commands. We know that what he commands is for our good and the good of others. We can trust his commands and be at peace with them, even if they are hard to follow. The absolute worst thing we can do is refuse to follow his commands while simultaneously denying that they are his commands (or denying that the Church has correctly interpreted his commands) in an effort to self-justify whatever it is we want to do. I invite you to pray with this psalm every day this week and seek to adopt the attitude of its author.

Lord, I love your commands.
I have said, O LORD, that my part is to keep your words.
The law of your mouth is to me more precious than thousands of gold and silver pieces.
R. Lord, I love your commands.
Let your kindness comfort me
according to your promise to your servants.
Let your compassion come to me that I may live,
for your law is my delight.
R. Lord, I love your commands.
For I love your command
more than gold, however fine.
For in all your precepts I go forward;
every false way I hate.
R. Lord, I love your commands.
Wonderful are your decrees;
therefore I observe them.
The revelation of your words sheds light,
giving understanding to the simple.
R. Lord, I love your commands.

Liturgy of the Hours: Week I of the Psalter
A dragnet was a large net supported by floats and used for surface fishing. Its catch was indiscriminate: edible and inedible, ritually clean and unclean, marketable or worthless, the fish would be sorted out by the fishermen when brought ashore. The dragnet catch is an image of the Christian community of committed disciples and sinners, of good and evil—the mix that we can recognize in ourselves. The will, however, come a moment of end-time judgement when disciples will be finally accountable Living Liturgy Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time 2023

Safe Environment 2023/2024

It is time to renew Safe Environment Certifications. If you work/volunteer in any capacity for Sacred Heart Parish with either the youth or vulnerable adults, this certification is required by the Diocese every year. Go to: <http://www.crookston.org/secertification> to complete your certification online. If you are unable to go online, Christine Dornbusch will set you up in the office with a laptop. This is a new program that the Diocese is using so please allow ample time to complete it. Please everybody get this done by August 1st. There is a fair amount of bookkeeping in keeping track of who needs to/has completed the Safe Environment requirement; this bookkeeping is much easier if everyone gets this done by August 1st.

"We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose."-Romans 8:28

Do you really trust God? Do you really believe that God will provide all that you need? Faith is a challenge for everyone at times. Putting our trust in God, in everything we do, in good times and in bad, means that God's plan for our lives may be quite different than what we planned. When one door closes, another one opens.

Envelopes are provided in the pews and the back of the church for the Summer 2023 Diocesan Annual Appeal. If you haven't already contributed please consider supporting the Summer DAA.
