Liturgy of the Hours: Week I of the Psalter

Reflection on the Gospel

As we listen to this parable as a eucharistic community, we are powerfully reminded of the equality and solidarity of all God's laboring disciples who receive the same food at the same table. Yet are there people about whose presence we are judgmental? And outside of Mass, is our vision of our brothers and sisters darkened by envy, and even by an unexpressed suspicion of or open grumbling about God who seems to be unfair with his generosity—especially to me? Does making comparison override being in communion?

"Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."- Matthew 20:16

You've heard the saying "it's not where you start, but how you finish." This certainly applies to this Bible passage. We have a responsibility not only for our own lives, but for the lives of others as well. We are called to generously share our gifts with others, not hoard them for our own use. Our sincere gratitude and cheerful generosity will help us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

There are 4 youth that have committed to attending Steubenville in July of 2024. They will be serving an Egg bake breakfast as their 1st fundraiser on Sunday October 8th right after the 8am Mass. We hope you join them in their fundraising efforts along with some fellowship. Thank you for supporting the parish youth!!!

The next Seasons of Hope, our parish's grief support group, starts on Wed., Oct. 4. Through the use of scripture, this program brings together those who suffer from the loss of a loved one as they experience their grief journey. The group meets for 2 hours each Wed. for 6 consecutive weeks, ending on Nov. 8. There will be a 10:00 am group and a 7:00 pm group for you to choose from. For more information, take a Seasons of Hope brochure from the kiosk in All Saints Hall or contact Marlys Jacobson.

Priesthood Sunday is a special day set aside to honor Priesthood and will be celebrated throughout the United States Sept 23rd and 24th. It is a day to reflect upon and affirm the role of the Priesthood in the life of the Church.

You may bring your own cards or fill out the cards provided with your spiritual gifts (Rosaries, Masses, Prayers) and words of gratefulness for our Priest. Some Thank You cards and a card box will be provided in the gathering space. Children may draw a picture or write a note to Father Hamness.

Father would like to recommend that you remember and pray for the Priests who conferred the Sacraments upon you, especially Baptism and Marriage. Please consider mailing them a card. If they are deceased, or you are unable to know their whereabouts, you may put their names in the 2nd box provided (and so marked), and Father Hamness will do a private blessing for them at a later time. We ask you all to please bring bars or cookies, so to provide "Refreshments" after both Masses.

Thank You, and God Bless you.

Who Are the Angels?

Dr. Ben Akers sits down with Dr. Mark Miravalle, Saint John Paul II Chair of Mariology at Franciscan University of Steubenville, to discuss the angels. What is an angel? What are the choirs of angels? How do we engage with our guardian angels?

St. Jerome | Catholic Saints

An early Church Father from the 4th century, St. Jerome translated the Bible into Latin with the desire to make Scripture more accessible. St. Jerome is the patron of biblical scholars, translators, and archivists and famously said, "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."

Who Are the Archangels?

Dr. Ben Akers and Dr. Elizabeth Klein discuss archangels and what role they have in our lives.
