This week I want to encourage you to think about the Star of the North Eucharistic Congress in Bemidji. Our diocese is coordinating with our neighbor to the East (the Diocese of Duluth) to have an amazing Eucharistic Congress in Northern Minnesota. Please have a look at the schedule in the bulletin. The Congress will be held at the Sanford Center in Bemidji, and will feature fantastic Christian Music by Aly Aleigha (look her up on the internet) as well as hearing from Bishop Felton of Duluth, and our own bishop too, along with Bishop Robert Barron. On Sunday, there will be the opening Mass of a once-in-a-lifetime Eucharistic pilgrimage from Lake Itasca to Indianapolis, Indiana for the National Eucharistic Congress in July. Have you ever experienced the beauty of walking in procession with the Most Holy Eucharist enthroned in the Monstrance, and carried by your bishop as psalm, hymns, and spiritual songs are sung and as Sacred Litanies are prayed aloud with hundreds of your fellow Catholics???! This is an experience I want you all to have. I am just trying to find a substitute priest for Frazee and Callaway so that I can go too!

Hurry! As we draw closer, it may be difficult to find accommodations in Bemidji!

"A Day Away" for Men and Women's -- Saturday, April 27, 2024
 Do you need some "ME" time to be in solitude with the Lord away from the business of life? Join us at the HOLY GROUND which is Christ the King Retreat Center, overlooking Buffalo Lake, for a day in a peaceful setting to "walk humbly with your God". Optional guided meditations and conferences. Includes Lunch. Suggested Donation $30. Register online at www.kingshouse.com or call 763-682-1394.

"Jesus himself stood among them and said to them, 'Peace be with you. 'But they were startled and frightened...'" - Luke 24:36-37

Throughout the day we have many opportunities to "see the face of Jesus" in others and to "be the face of Jesus" to others. Do we take that opportunity to provide "peace" to those we encounter or are we afraid of what others will think of us and do nothing? Pray for the strength and courage to live a "God-centered" life and not a "self-centered" life.

Liturgy of the Hours: Week III of the Psalter
Reflection on the Gospel
 In his words he speaks to the disciples in today's gospel, the risen Jesus links the affirmation that the Messiah had to suffer with the invitation to repentance and forgiveness. Repentance and acceptance of forgiveness is not guilt-induced; it is the only adequate response to God's gift of new life offered in restored relationship with the risen Christ. Witnessing to this love and power begins at home (Jerusalem, in the case of the disciples) and then radiates out "to all nations."

Third Sunday of Easter (B)

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19 / 1 John 2:1-5a / Luke 24:35-48

FR. JOSEPH JUKNIALIS

Spiritual writers tell us that a sure sign of life lived with faith in God is peace, the inner kind of peace that enables you to rest in it with no worry or anxiety. When the risen Lord appears in the midst of the disciples just back from Emmaus and says to them first off, "Peace be with you," that's the sort of peace he's talking about and wishing for them.

Such peace doesn't seem to be something easy to come by, something that simply plops into the lap of your soul. More than anything it seems to be the fruit of prayerfulness—sometimes praying the rosary or other traditional prayers and sometimes just simply sitting in the quiet, in the midst of love without having to say any words.

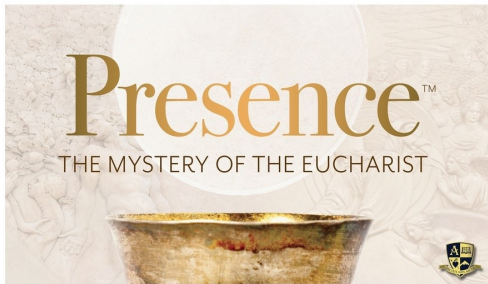

There is something about surrendering to God's love over the course of many lived days that eventually brings us to that sort of trusting peace.

The thing about such peace is that only you know if it's genuine. When you feel peace when life turns topsy-turvy, that's God peace. When life is progressing smoothly, it's not easy to know if that's God's peace or just a life without turbulence. But if you're at peace when everything else around you is not, that's when you know it's the presence of God that has you all wrapped up in worry-free wonder. ●
