The Popes intentions for May— For the formation of religious and seminarians

We pray that religious women and men, and seminarians, grow in their own vocations through their human, pastoral, spiritual and community formation, leading them to be credible witnesses to the Gospel.

HELP!! PLEASE CHECK YOUR PILES OF SAVED BUILDING MATERIALS !! WE ARE IN NEED OF 4-30 INCH PIECES OF SIDING THAT WILL MATCH THE CHURCH SIDING. WE NEED TO REPAIR THE SIDING, WHERE THE VENT HOOD WAS REMOVED ON THE EAST WALL!

From the Desk of Fr. Hamness:

Which of these seven gifts do you need most this year? How about you pray for that gift every single day during the Octave of Pentecost (the next seven days)?

The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit

Wisdom: The gift to seek God first in all things and to see life from His perspective.

Understanding: The gift of enlightenment to grasp God's truth.

Counsel: The gift of guidance to make good decisions and do what pleases God.

Fortitude: The gift of courage and strength to overcome all obstacles in following Jesus.

Knowledge: The gift to know God and know myself.

Piety: The gift to enjoy God and the service of God.

Fear of the Lord: The gift of reverence and respect towards God.

Pentecost Sunday

“There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone.” 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

All of us are blessed, regardless of our own individual circumstances. God has given each of us many gifts. How do we use those gifts in our gift back to God. For God’s plan to work, each must do what we are called to do. Guess what? We are not all called to do the same thing! For God’s plan to work you have to do what God is calling you to do and I have to do what God is calling me to do.

Question of the week?

How so I carry out the Christian mission in what I say and do? How can each of the gifts of the Holy Spirit—wisdom, understanding, counsel, knowledge, fortitude, piety, and fear of the Lord — aid in my mission?

“Long live Christ the King and the Virgin of Guadalupe!”

This was the slogan of the “Cristero” uprising in the 1920’s against the anti-Catholic government of Mexico which had instituted and enforced laws against the Church in an absurd attempt to eradicate the Catholic faith in Mexico, even going so far as to ban all foreign clergy and the celebration of Mass in some regions.

St. Christopher Magallanes, along with 21 other priests and three lay companions, were martyred between 1915 and 1937, by shooting or hanging, throughout eight Mexican states, for their membership in the Cristero movement. Magallanes erected a seminary in Totatiche and he and his companions secretly preached and ministered to the faithful.

We will be saying the Rosary at 10:05 am during the month of May

May 26th Rosary Leader Anna Brown

Prayer Requests:

The following people or their family has asked us to pray for them:

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care/treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit then to your mercy.

Youth News!

Congratulations to Katie Steffl and Jonah Steffl on their Graduation from College last weekend.

The last words heard spoken by Magallanes were from his cell, when he shouted, "I am innocent and I die innocent. I forgive with all my heart those responsible for my death, and I ask God that the shedding of my blood serve the peace of our divided Mexico". Pope John Paul II beatified the Cristero martyrs in 1992 and canonized them in 2000.

Get to know St. Rita: A saint for impossible situations

Rita of Cascia, OSA (born Margherita Ferri Lotti; 1381 – 22 May 1457), was an Italian widow and Augustinian nun. After Rita’s husband died, she joined an Augustinian community of religious sisters, where she was known both for practicing mortification of the flesh^[1] and for the efficacy of her prayers. Various miracles are attributed to her intercession, and she is often portrayed with a bleeding wound on her forehead, which is understood to indicate a partial stigmata.

Pope Leo XIII canonized Rita on 24 May 1900. Her feast day is celebrated on 22 May. At her canonization ceremony, she was bestowed the title of "Patroness of Impossible Causes," while in many Catholic countries, Rita came to be known as the patroness of abused wives and heartbroken women. Her body, which Augustinians believe to be incorrupt, remains in the Basilica of Santa Rita da Cascia.
