Pope Francis's Prayer intention for July For the pastoral care of the sick
 We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power

Cont... St Dominic, Priest

At the age of 24, Dominic was ordained as a priest and subsequently joined the canonry of the Cathedral of Osma. In 1198, Don Martin de Bazan, the Bishop of Osma, having reformed the chapter, made Dominic the subprior of the chapter.

According to Dominican tradition, in 1208 Dominic experienced a vision of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the church at Prouille, during which she gave him a rosary. This gave rise to the title Our Lady of the Rosary.

The spread of the rosary is attributed to the preaching of the Dominicans. For centuries the rosary has been at the heart of the Dominican Order. Pope Pius XI stated, that the rosary is "the principle and foundation on which the Order of St. Dominic rests for perfecting the lives of its members and obtaining the salvation of others."

Dominic is commonly but apocryphally associated with the Inquisition. Historical sources from Dominic's own time period reveal nothing about his involvement in the Inquisition. Dominic died in 1221, and the office of the Inquisition was not established until 1231 in Lombardy and 1234 in Languedoc.

MCCL Booth Volunteers Needed

The DL area Knights have sponsored the MCCL Booth at the county fair for many years. We have so few people willing to man the booth that most end up taking 3+ hour shifts. If you are willing to help us out by taking a 1, or even 2, hour shift during the fair, please call 218-234-4448 and talk to Brad. The fair is Aug. 7-10.

Fall Cursillo

Are you looking for a way to walk more closely with God? Cursillo may be what you're looking for. The Diocese of Crookston is offering a Women's Cursillo on September 26-29 and a Men's Cursillo on the weekend of October 24-27 at the Crookston Pastoral Center. Applications are available at crookstonscurisillo.weebly.com. Or scan the QR code! The weekend is a three-day learning, sharing, inspirational experience of living in a Christian community. During the three days of a Cursillo weekend a person not only hears inspiring talks on what it really means to be a Christian, but actually experiences the joy of building and being part of a genuine Christian community.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend

A Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is a private weekend away from the distractions of daily life for couples in good marriages. Give your marriage this gift! The next available weekends are October 12- 13th at St Mary's in Alexandria or Nov 22-24, 2024 in Windom. Early registration is highly recommended. For more information visit our website at: wwwme.org or contact Miki at: applications@southmnwwme.org or 507-227-8229.

From the desk of Fr Hamness

We've heard news of troubling weather as of late, and we may have seen some of it ourselves. At the cemetery in Frazee we had a tree toppled by the wind and it destroyed the beautiful scene of the crucifixion that we have there. Never fear...it will be repaired. With this in mind, let's remember that our God is the God of all and that we can pray for his help to give us the weather we need, or to keep it away, as the case may be. We can also use sacramentals. On the feast of Candlemas, in February, candles are blessed and given to the people, and one excellent use for them is to light them during a storm and pray for calm weather. Here are some useful Catholic prayers for the weather. Cut them out and post them on your fridge.

FOR RAIN

Almighty and Eternal God, please grant us saving rain, and graciously let the showers from Heaven refreshed the parched earth, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FOR FINE WEATHER

O God, hear our cry and grant our petition for fine weather, so that we who are justly punished for our sins may feel the merciful help of your kindness. Almighty God, we implore your mercy to check the downpour of rain and let the sunlight of your pleasure once again shine upon us, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus will test them, to see whether they follow my instructors or not.” Exodus 16:4

When the Israelites gathered more than their daily portion of manna, the surplus became wormy and rotten. In the same way today, self-reliance, pride and ego leads to hoarding and excessive surplus of goods and money. Living a stewardship lifestyle helps us discern our “wants” for our “needs”. Living a grateful and generous lifestyle remains us that God will provide all that we need and that we have plenty to share.

Question of the week?

What have I grumbled about this week on my journey through life? How can the Bread of Life sustain me through a difficulty or hardships like that?

Liturgy of the Hours: Week II of the Psalter

Reflection on the Gospel

The crowd in the gospel crossed over the Sea of Galilee, opening themselves to the possibility of being filled forever by the One who would also entrust to them the “works of God” to feed others and give “life to the world.” This mission can take us into strange territory, where we risk letting go of familiar and tasting the “bread” of others. Step by step, we turn from looking for the external “signs” toward seeking to become one with the very bread of life who fills us.

What Was the Transfiguration?

Transfiguration, in the New Testament, the occasion upon which Jesus Christ took three of his disciples, Peter, James, and John, up on a mountain, where Moses and Elijah appeared and Jesus was transfigured, his face and clothes becoming dazzlingly

Prayer Requests:

The following people or their family has asked us to pray for them:

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care/treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit then to your mercy.

Saint Dominic

Thursday, August 8th

In the earliest narrative source, by Jordan of Saxony, Dominic's parents are not named. The story is told that before his birth his barren mother made a pilgrimage to the Abbey at Silos, and dreamt that a dog leapt from her womb carrying a flaming torch in its mouth, and seemed to set the earth on fire. This story is likely to have emerged when his order became known, after his name, as the Dominican order, Dominicanus in Latin, and a play on words interpreted as Domini canis: "Dog of the Lord." Jordan adds that Dominic was brought up by his parents and a maternal uncle who was an archbishop. At fourteen years of age, Dominic was sent to the Premonstratensian monastery of Santa María de La Vid and subsequently transferred for further studies in the schools of Palencia. In Palencia, he devoted six years to the arts and four to theology. At some point in time he also joined Santa María de La Vid.

In 1191, when Spain was desolated by famine, young Dominic gave away his money and sold his clothes, furniture, and even precious manuscripts to feed the hungry. Dominic reportedly told his astonished fellow students, "Would you have me study off these dead skins when men are dying of hunger?"Cont. Back Page
