Holy Fathers Prayer Intentions for June: That the world might grow in compassion
Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

Praying for Our Clergy: Sunday, June 22nd Fr Raul Perez-Cobo, Monday, June 23rd Fr. Mario Prada, Tuesday, June 24th Fr. Duane Pribula, Wednesday, June 25th Fr. Joe Richards, Thursday, June 26th Fr. Matt Schmitz, Friday, June 27th Fr. Bob Schreiner, Saturday, June 28st Fr. Luis Silva

Over the next Few weeks I will be reprinting an Article that was printed in the June issue of The Word Among Us by the most Rev. William E. Lori. Today will be the introduction and the first of the five priority for parish's.

Fanning into Flame Our Eucharistic Faith, Becoming a Missionary Parish

In the sanctuaries of our churches and chapels, a lamp perpetually burns-a flickering flame that signals the reserved presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Each of us, too, is called to be a light that burns brightly and at all times. We are called to share our faith by reflecting the love of Christ to those we encounter each day.

However, as missionary disciple, we can't always do this on our own. We need to band together with other members of the body of Christ so that together we shine even more brightly in the world. In this article, I want to outline the kind of priorities we need in our parishes so that we can more effectively “fan into flame” our Eucharistic faith(see 2 Timothy 1:6)!

One of the keys to parishes shining brightly is to be “outward bound”- that is, geared not just to offer good things and then hope that people show up, but to actively search for those who need to hear the gospel.

As Pope Francis has exhorted us, a parish needs to be “in contact with the homes and the lives of its people.” Otherwise, it risks becoming “a useless structure out of touch with people or a self-absorbed group made up of a chosen few”. (Evangelii Gaudium,28)

The Mission of a Parish.

First is the celebration of the liturgy, especially the Eucharistic Liturgy. The Eucharist is the heart of every parish, and for most Catholics, Sunday Mass is their point of contact with the Church. How the liturgy is celebrated in our parishes matters a great deal. God’s people are impacted and attracted by thoughtful preaching, beautiful liturgical music, reverence for the Body and Blood of the Lord, respect for one another. We should ask ourselves: Does our celebration of the liturgy help to form, make and send fourth missionary disciples? Does it make people want to return week after week?

Next Week ,will be Priority 2&3

Thank you, one and all, for the many birthday wishes last week. Who knew turning 40 would be so much fun?! All told, I received four birthday cakes from various gatherings, plus pecan pies at another. I am now going on a diet.

The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

“ They all ate and were satisfied. And when the leftovers fragments were picked up, they filled twelve wicker baskets.” (Luke 9:17)

The story of the Loaves and Fishes shows us that when you share what you have, even if it doesn’t seem like that much, miracles can happen! Do not think that your gift is too small or insignificant! Each of us has a role in God’s plan; you just need to place your trust in the Lord. Nothing is impossible with God. You just may be the answer to someone else’s prayer.

Question of the week?

In the week ahead, how will I offer myself in imitation of Jesus to nourish or sustain someone else?

Liturgy of the Hours: Of the Solemnity

Reflection on the Gospel

The miracle in today’s gospel is a call to self-giving. Such self-giving is not possible on our own. It is the gathered assembly of believers, where we remember in the sacramental ritual Christ’s ultimate self-giving in love for the life of the world, that we gain strength and give courage to one another to entrust ourselves to this kind of love. We come to the eucharistic table so that the ability to replicate Christ’s action in our world beomes all the more natural as we remember again and again.

Bold are new this week, or need extra prayers!

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy.

Thank you to the anonymous person who left us wonderful Notes and Shirts! We will definitely wear them to church! Avis, Karen Lori & Ginny

The Savior's Happy Meal

*This Happy Meal doesn't look like much,
And it doesn't come with a toy.
It may not fill my stomach,
But it fills my heart with joy!
The bread and wine remind me of
The Savior's love for me;
When he died upon a rugged cross
On a hill called Calvary.
There is no way I can describe
The gratitude I feel
Each and every time I eat
The Savior's Happy Meal!*
