Holy Fathers Prayer Intentions for July: For formation in discernment

Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life, and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel.

Praying for Our Clergy: Sunday, July 20th Fr. John Christianson, Monday, July 21st Fr. John Cox, OMI, Tuesday, July 22nd Fr. Bill DeCrans, Wednesday, July 23rd Fr. Larry Delaney, Thursday, July 24th Fr Anthony Fernando, Friday, July 25th Fr. Mike Foltz, Saturday, July 26th Fr. Tom Friedl

It was almost a year ago to the date that we visited your parish to talk about a key project to build Our Lady of Namulenga Secondary School in the rural region of Blantyre, Malawi. We have a special relationship between our diocese and the Blantyre Diocese through their generous support to assign Father James (Roseau) and Father Christon (Warroad) on a multi year assignment to provide needed priests for our parishes.

During that mass, we promised to provide ongoing updates regarding the progress of the school in appreciation for the interest and contributions provided by your parishioners.

Thank you!
Dave Doherty

Our Lady of Namulenga Secondary School in Blantyre, Malawi OPENING THIS FALL: As a follow up to the visits last summer, Archbishop Thomas Msusa is returning on July 17th-20th to announce the school's opening this September. We are excited with the relationship between the Blantyre Diocese with our Diocese in Crookston through the two priests serving our diocese; Father James in Roseau and Father Christon in Warroad. A newsletter outlining the school's progress is at ttemalawi.org. Thank you for your support!

Beyond the Walls of the Church. Matthew was fully received into the Catholic Church on Easter Sunday 2019. His testimony serves as a living example of how parishes can shine the Eucharistic faith beyond the four walls of their churches. As they do, they offer the gospel—an encounter with Jesus— to the people they reach. It is my prayer that these core mission priorities will make their home in every parish and will shine the light of Christ far and wide.

From the Desk of Fr. Hamness:

Today's first reading is about the visit of three mysterious strangers to Abraham and Sarah. From the earliest ages of the Church, Christians have thought that this scene from the Old Testament was hinting that God is a Trinity. There is a famous icon by Andrei Rublev that attempts to capture this scene. If you use the following QR code by simply opening the camera app on your phone and pointing it at this symbol, it will take you to a fascinating website that explains many interesting secrets hidden in this icon. It is well-worth your time to have a look!

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“...I am a minister in accordance with God’s stewardship given to me to bring to completion for you the word of God.” COLOSSIANS 1:25

We are all called to evangelize – to convert individuals and society by the divine power of the Gospel. Our faith is more attractive to others by our actions than by our words alone. We may not be called to evangelize like St. Paul, but we should look for opportunities to share our faith through our actions and words, especially with those closest to us, like our family, friends, and neighbors. Pray for the courage to joyfully express your faith the next time the opportunity arises.

Question of the week?

How am I hospitable to others in need of food or rest, or just some companionship? How can I see the Lord in such hospitality?

Liturgy of the Hours: Week IIV of the Psalter
Reflection on the Gospel

There was never any question in the early church about women becoming disciples. Both Martha and Mary welcomed Jesus and the word he spoke (vv.38-39). The controversy swirled around what women would do with what they learned while sitting at Jesus’ feet. The answer Luke gave was quite understandable for his time. Today’s gospel invites us to reflect on what answer Jesus might give today to the question of a woman’s place in the ministries of the church as they have now evolved.

Bold are new this week, or need extra prayers!

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy.
