From the Desk of Fr. Hamness:

Last Monday was the 40th anniversary of my baptism. It is possible to obtain a Plenary Indulgence by visiting the Church of your baptism on the anniversary of that day. I was fortunate enough to be visiting my mother on that day, so I drove into Greenbush to visit Blessed Sacrament Church where I was baptized. I prayed there for a while in thanksgiving for the gift of baptism which makes one a beloved child of God. I even dug out the old family photo albums to see if I could find a picture of the event. I was baptized by Fr. Ray Palcisko. He is 95 years old now and living in retirement in Crookston. On Tuesday, I was in Crookston, and I saw Fr. Palcisko practicing his golf game on the lawn outside of the Cathedral, so I walked over to him, showed him the photo, and thanked him for baptizing me.

This is a good task for you too. Find out where and when you were baptized, visit the Church, and say a prayer for the priest or deacon who brought you into the family of God through the waters of new life.

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions."
LUKE 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our "invisible" gifts like love, mercy, and forgiveness. True joy comes from "emptying" ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more "God-centered" and less "self-centered."

Question of the week?

What or Whom have I thought of when I recieved an unexpected bounty? How can I be a more generous person?

Liturgy of the Hours: Week II of the Psalter Reflection on the Gospel

The gospel today shows us in parable from what the "greed that is idolatry" looks like. The rich man's self-centered plan for stockpiling and spending for his own enjoyment is interrupted by a startling apparition by God. "You fool" comes the accusation, everything belongs to God; even life itself is given to us on loan. To those who are blessed with abundance; the parable poses hard questions about legitimate use, greediness, and just distribution of resources for the common good.

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy.
