From the Desk of Fr. Hamness:

I think we were all brokenhearted to hear about the tragedy at Annunciation Catholic Church in Minneapolis this past Wednesday. A man who works for the Diocese of Crookston is the father of one of the teachers at Annunciation School who was present at the Mass when the tragedy took place. One of our own parishioners is a cousin of this same, brave teacher, who was actually the lector for the Mass and was standing at the ambo proclaiming the Psalm when the shooting began.

I am sure we have many other connections amongst us to people who were close to this tragedy.
Many people are stunned right now. That is what evil does to us. It knocks the wind out of our sails. It deflates us. Our comfort is only in the Lord. “The LORD is close to the brokenhearted, [He] saves
those whose spirit is crushed.” — Psalm 34:19

Let’s remember those who have died in our prayers, and let’s not forget about the wounded either. We also have to pray for those who were not physically harmed but were still terrified. The emotional and spiritual damage may be the hardest wounds to heal.
Let’s entrust them to our Merciful God.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. LUKE 14:13-14

One of the main principles of living a stewardship life-style is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in our “consumerist” culture that we live in. This is even difficult for many parish communities that have become heavily dependent on parish fundraising events to support the mission and ministry of their local parish. Generally speaking, at a parish fundraiser, you pay money and receive something in return, it’s just a financial transaction. This is opposed to our parish offertory at Holy Mass, where you unite your sacrifice with Jesus’, renewing our covenant relationship with Him.

Question of the week?

When have I realized too late that I should exercised some humility? What have I learned when exercising humility?

Liturgy of the Hours: Week II of the Psalter

Reflection on the Gospel

It is easy to fall prey to the false humility, pretending to take a lowly place in the hopes of receiving adulation and an invitation to come up higher. Or false humility can be manifested in persons whose self-esteem has never developed properly. True humility is grounded in a knowledge that all persons, no matter their circumstances, and all the created world share in an unbreakable interconnection of life given by God. We are equally loved and esteemed by the Holy One who desires the flourishing of all.

Bold are new this week, or need extra prayers!

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy.
