Liturgical Music

I think we were all brokenhearted to hear about the tragedy at Annunciation Catholic Church in Minneapolis this past Wednesday. A man who works for the Diocese of Crookston is the father of one of the teachers at Annunciation School who was present at the Mass when the tragedy took place. One of our own parishioners is a cousin of this same, brave teacher, who was actually the lector for the Mass and was standing at the ambo proclaiming the Psalm when the shooting began.

I am sure we have many other connections amongst us to people who were close to this tragedy.

Many people are stunned right now. That is what evil does to us. It knocks the wind out of our sails. It deflates us. Our comfort is only in the Lord. "The LORD is close to the brokenhearted, [He] saves those whose spirit is crushed." — Psalm 34:19

Let's remember those who have died in our prayers, and let's not forget about the wounded either. We also have to pray for those who were not physically harmed but were still terrified. The emotional and spiritual damage may be the hardest wounds to heal. Let's entrust them to our Merciful God.

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you."
LUKE 14:13-14

One of the main principles of living a stewardship lifestyle is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in our "consumerist" culture that we live in. This is even difficult for many parish communities that have become heavily dependent on parish fundraising events to support the mission and ministry of their local parish. Generally speaking, at a parish fundraiser, you pay money and receive something in return, it's just a financial transaction. This is opposed to our parish offertory at Holy Mass, where you unite your sacrifice with Jesus', renewing our covenant relationship with Him.

Mother Teresa: No Greater Love

Mother Teresa: No Greater Love is a soaring tribute to a spiritual icon, a powerful witness of authentic Christian charity, and a guidepost for all who seek hope in our turbulent times: Mother Teresa of Calcutta. This film reveals not just who Mother Teresa was, but how her singular vision to serve Christ in the poor continues to be realized through the Missionaries of Charity today.
