From the Desk of Fr. Hamness:

Sister Annella Zervas, O.S.B. (1900–1926), was a Benedictine nun from Moorhead, Minnesota, remembered for her holiness, humility, and serene suffering. At age 16, she entered St. Benedict’s Convent in St. Joseph, Minnesota, where she became a postulant and later a novice. Taking the name Sister Annella, she dedicated herself to the Benedictine ideals of prayer, work, and obedience. Her life was marked by quiet devotion, charity toward others, and a deep interior life centered on the Eucharist.

In her early twenties, Sister Annella developed a severe and disfiguring skin disease, believed to be lupus vulgaris or another chronic infection. The illness caused intense pain and isolation, yet she bore her suffering with extraordinary patience and cheerfulness, uniting it to Christ’s Passion. Her fellow sisters and visitors were deeply moved by her serenity and holiness amid agony. She died at only 26 years old on August 14, 1926, the eve of the Assumption, peacefully accepting death as “God’s holy will.”

After her death, reports of favors and healings through her intercession spread, and devotion to her memory grew in Minnesota and beyond. Though not officially canonized, many continue to regard Sister Annella Zervas as a model of hidden sanctity and redemptive suffering.

“Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?” LUKE 17:18

Most of us live relatively “easy” lives. We have food, shelter, clothing, and money. We go on vacation every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn’t this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you and discern how He is calling you to share your gifts.

Question of the week?
How can I like the Samaritan, take the extra step to show my gratitude to God?

Liturgy of the Hours: Week IV of the Psalter
Reflection on the Gospel

At the realization of his healing, the man in today’s gospel turned around, perhaps not only physically but interiorly as well. When he lets gratitude for all God has given him consume him, he turns around from any other cancers that eat at his spirit. Jesus affirms that this kind of faith, rooted in thankfulness, is the healing, saving power (the Greek verb sozein connotes both “heal” and “save”) that enables him to go forward as a changed person, both in body and spirit..

Lord, we pray for your loving support for the people listed below and their families as they deal with their illness. Guide the doctors who are seeking answers and making decisions about care/treatment. We pray that their illness is at a stage favorable for effective treatment. Enable their bodies to respond well to care treatment and their souls to experience comfort and peace in you. Make this an experience that draws them and their loved ones closer to you as well as to one another. We commit them to your mercy.

World Mission Sunday 2025

October 12, 2025

Praying with the Mission Church

United in Prayer with the Missions

As World Mission Month continues, we are invited not only to give but to pray for the Church in mission territories. One powerful way to do this is by praying the World Mission Rosary, introduced by Venerable Archbishop Fulton Sheen in 1951. Each decade is a different color, representing a region of the world. In Evangelii Nuntiandi, St. Pope Paul VI reminds us that prayer is the soul of all mission: “It is the Holy Spirit who, today just as at the beginning of the Church, acts in every evangelizer” (75). Through our prayers, we unite ourselves with missionaries bringing the Gospel to the ends of the earth. Let us offer our rosaries and Masses this week for those who bring Christ’s love to the margins, often at great personal cost. And let us ask the Holy Spirit to rekindle the fire of hope in our own hearts, that we may also be missionaries, wherever we are.
