On this Second Sunday in Ordinary Time, the readings prompt us to look closely at who Jesus is and what it means to recognize Him in our midst. In the Gospel, John the Baptist points to Jesus and declares, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." This is not a dramatic miracle or a public sign, but a moment of witness. John teaches us that faith often begins simply by noticing and naming the presence of Christ.

In moments of stress or trouble, being able to name or acknowledge the presence of Jesus is the very first step. When we are in distress or danger, if we can just realize or remember that Jesus is with us, and that he wants to help us, and that he wants to be with us, that is the best thing we can do. From there, Jesus can take over the situation and act through us, but first we have to remember that he is with us and that he wants to help us. This is sometimes hard to do, so we need to train ourselves to do this when we encounter small, little troubles, so that it will be more automatic when the trouble is great.

Give yourself this assignment this week. When some little, irritating thing happens, think to yourself that Jesus is with you, that he wants to be with you, and that he wants to help you, and just see how the irritating situation is changed now that you have brought it into the presence of the Lord. Try it and be amazed! Say to yourself, "Behold the Lamb of God!" Notice that he is with you.

“Now the Lord has spoken who formed me as his servant from the womb...” ISAIAH 49:5

God have given each of us different gifts. In order for God’s plan to work, you have to do what God is calling you to do, and I have to do what God is calling me to do. And guess what? God has given each of us a different plan!

So, stop comparing yourself to others. Don’t let envy and jealousy enter your life. Be thankful for the gifts God has given you and become the saint that God is calling you to be.

Please join the Sacred Heart family for a free soup and sandwich meal on Sunday January 25th from 11:30am to 1:30pm. Hope to see everyone there!!
